EDMONTON BULLETIN

ESTABLISHED DECEMBER 6, 1880

HOME EDITION

SIXTY-EIGHTH YEAR — EDMONTON, ALBERTA, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1948 — ★★★ — Telephone 26121 — PRICE 5 CENTS

Over-Parking Fine Slashed By Half

But Additional $1 Imposed For Violation Over 60 Minutes

One price came down in Edmonton Monday—the price of overtime parking.

City council approved a reduction in fines for overtime parking on parking meters Monday night from one dollar to 50 cents.

The measure was approved by a count of five to three.

But the civic legislators put a barb in the measure which is intended to discourage abuse of the lighter penalty by imposing an additional dollar penalty for any violation of over 60 minutes duration.

TO DETER MOTORISTS

The additional penalty is designed to deter motorists from utilizing a parking ticket as a means of obtaining indefinite parking, a practice which, Mayor Harry Ainlay contended, is becoming a common one.

The reduction in the fines was opposed by Deputy Police Chief Alex Riddell on the ground that the reduced fine would result in a "careless attitude on the part of motorists".

The measure was opposed by Aldermen Bowcott, Bissett and Mitchell while it received support from Mayor Ainlay and Aldermen Gariepy, Tanner, Ford and Ogilvie.

STILL ON TRIAL

Those who opposed the measure contended that the meters are still on trial and more time to note results should be taken before regulations concerning them were varied.

Fines for violation of parking meters now total $4,798.

Oil Strikers Battle Police

RICHMOND, Cal., Sept. 14.—(BUP)—Two thousand striking CIO oil workers barricaded themselves outside the huge Standard Oil refinery today and fought off with clubs and stones a police riot squad trying to escort AFL workers to their jobs inside.

Steel-helmeted policemen fired tear gas shells into the embattled strikers, only to have the smoking shells hurled back into their own ranks.

Police said "at least" five persons were hospitalized with "not-too-serious injuries," and dozens of others reported minor cuts and bruises from flying stones and bottles.

The entire Richmond police force, 100 strong, was reinforced by 25 Contra Costa County deputy sheriffs and an undetermined number of California highway patrolmen. One of the patrolmen was among those hurt.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(CP)—A report on the exclusion from the United States of Fred Dowling, Canadian director of the United Packinghouse Workers (CIO), had not reached the immigration department this morning.

No Hints of Progress As Kremlin Talk Ends

MOSCOW, Sept. 14.—(CP)—The Kremlin meeting between three western envoys and Foreign Minister Molotov ended at 7:30 p.m. (Moscow time) tonight.

The meeting—tenth with Molotov since the current talks started July 31—lasted 90 minutes.

After the meeting the three envoys returned to the British embassy for a joint conference to prepare a report for transmission to their governments.

NEW APPROACH

This was the first four-power meeting in Moscow since Aug. 30, when Walter Bedell Smith, United States ambassador, French ambassador Yves Chataigneau and Frank Roberts, special British envoy, saw Molotov and his deputy, Andrei Vishinsky, on the Berlin question.

The three westerners met among themselves just before they went to the Kremlin. The new meeting followed the return of Francois Seydoux, French political adviser in Germany, with reports on the talks held in Berlin by the four military governors.

COUNTER-OFFERS?

The western envoys may have replied to Russian counter-points raised in Berlin. Some of these undoubtedly came as a surprise to the western governments who had thought agreement had been reached in principle when the last Kremlin meeting decided to transfer the issue to Berlin.

The confident western expectation here then was that the governors would work out details in a few days and that the envoys would ratify it here at another Kremlin meeting.

Suspended Union Chieftain Denounces Action of TLC

WINNIPEG, Sept. 14.—(BUP)—Frank H. Hall, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, said here his union, suspended from the Trades and Labor Congress, would send men on the floor of the TLC's annual convention in Victoria Oct. 11.

Hall said the charge of "dual unionism" laid against him by the executive of the TLC was made by people afraid to meet the real issue "head on."

(Hall's union was suspended from the TLC when he helped affiliate the Canadian Lake Seamen's Union with the International Seafarers' Union. The TLC recognizes the Canadian Seamen's Union, a rival. Hall's union refused to repudiate Hall's action and was suspended.)

"COMMUNIST ISSUE"

Hall said "there is only one issue—that of Communism—within the labor movement."

He referred to the Canadian Seamen's Union strike against Great Lake shipping companies as a "fallacy. The CSU lost the strike when it alienated the public by illegal acts and violence. The ships are moving."

The steamship companies, he continued, now were "confronted with the necessity for doing business with a much stronger union than the CSU. So we have done the

GAS 'N GROG BEFOG LUCKLESS MECHANIC

TORONTO, Sept. 14.—(CP)—This was the defendant's story: When he was servicing a refrigerator he was affected by escaping methyl chloride gas. The householder found him and gave him a "jigger" of rum.

While still groggy he started up his car; a policeman came along, smelled his breath and arrested him for being in charge of a car while intoxicated. The outcome of the case?—Dismissed.

British Arms Program Mirrors World Crisis

LONDON, Sept. 14.—(BUP)—The British government reacted to the critical international situation today by announcing a slow-down in demobilization, plans to double fighter airplane production, an intensive recruiting campaign, and steps to bring civil defence measures up-to-date.

Deputy Prime Minister Herbert Morrison announced the increased defence measures to a tense House of Commons at the first session of the new parliament, as he replied to an attack by Conservatives who charged the government with neglecting the dangerous situation abroad.

80,000 STRONGER

All persons now serving in the armed forces will be kept in uniform three months beyond their scheduled release dates, Morrison announced. He said this means that Britain would have 80,000 more men in service at the end of 1948 than had been planned under the previous demobilization scheme.

The crucial "state of the world" left the government no choice "but to take certain precautionary measures' Morrison told Commons.

ATTLEE ABSENT

He spoke in the absence of Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee, who is suffering from an "early' 'duodenal ulcer.

Conservative Oliver Stanley launched the attack on the government which led to Morrison's announcement of the new defence measures.

He referred to summoning of parliament for a two-week session to debate a bill to curb the powers of the House of Lords as "a petty pantomine" while such grave matters as Berlin, Palestine, Malaya and the dollar gap needed consideration.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—(AP)—A murder charge against John J. Hoffman, 32, accused of fatally beating his wife, Mollie, 24, in their Chicago home and then taking the body to Mauston, Wis., was adjourned yesterday to Oct. 4.

Search For U.S. Plane Continues

Northern Manitoba Scene of Intense Aerial Activity

WINNIPEG, Sept. 14.—(CP)—Parachute rescue squads stood by today while the air force intensified its search in northern Manitoba for a United States navy aircraft missing since Sunday with five men aboard.

RCAF headquarters in Winnipeg announced tersely in mid-morning that there was "nothing new to report" in the hunt for the missing plane. Headquarters said 13 search planes had taken up the task of criss-crossing the bleak district where the navy plane had disappeared.

TOP-RANKING OFFICERS

Among the passengers are two high-ranking naval officers, Capt. Sir R. W. Stirling-Hamilton, senior British naval officer representing the United Kingdom in Canada, and Capt. B. S. Custer, U.S. naval attache in Ottawa. They had been at Churchill, Man., for the arrival of two royal Canadian navy destroyers, the Nootka and Haida, first to enter the Hudson Bay port.

Paratroopers are on the alert at the Rivers, Man., air school in the event they are needed to go into the area when the plane is located.

RCAF officials described it as the "most intensive" search in Manitoba's history.

TEAMS STAND BY

Two U.S. Army paratroop teams—including a doctor—are standing by while a three-man Canadian Army team also is ready to swing into action.

Of the search planes, 10 are Canadian while the remaining three are American craft. In addition, four more American planes are due in Winnipeg today. After refuelling, they will push on immediately for the north country to take part in the search.

The missing aircraft left Churchill at 9 a.m. Sunday en route to The Pas, Man. It had sufficient fuel for only four hours, and it was the intention of the pilot to replenish the supply at The Pas.

MANY MILES COVERED

RCAF officials said search planes had covered more than 10 000 miles from dawn to dusk yesterday. One of the search planes is commanded by FO. Bob Race, recently awarded the George Medal for his part in the dramatic northern air rescue last spring of Canon John Turner.

Gasoline supplies were reported to be presenting a problem to the search planes. Because veteran RCAF men have expressed the opinion the search might be long and arduous, additional supplies of high octane gasoline have been sent to The Pas from Winnipeg.

Red Deer Radio Station Proposed

RED DEER, Alta., Sept. 14.—(CP)—City council last night referred a proposal to establish a 250 watt broadcasting station in Red Deer to the city solicitor.

The proposal came from G. S. Henry, former Edmonton radio station manager, who suggested that city council apply for a franchise to operate a station.

Mr. Henry said in a letter to council that he would finance establishment of such a project to be called the Central Alberta Broadcasting Company.

UN Will Discuss Indian Invasion

Hyderabad Calls For Council's Aid

By The Canadian Press

The Indian invasion of the tiny state of Hyderabad, in its second day, will be the subject for United Nations discussion Thursday.

Meeting in Paris, the Security Council will take up the matter at the request of the sieged state which lies wholly within India.

Announcement of UN attention came as Indian troops stepped up offensives on all fronts. They captured the town of Rajasur, midway between their starting point at Sholapur and their chief objective, Hyderabad City, heart and capital of the state.

The invasion, which got off to a lightning start early yesterday, involves the refusal of the Nizam of Hyderabad to accede to India. India believes Hyderabad should be part of that country.

TO BRING ORDER

Indian leaders had stated that law and order is practically non-existent in Hyderabad and declare that the invasion is to bring order to the rich state.

Indian troops have captured the important rail town of Jalna, some 70 miles inside the country and 250 miles from the capital.

They have reported one Indian column lost 100 killed and 150 captured in the first day of fighting. The Hyderabad defence ministry says Indian troops suffered 1,000 casualties in the first day.

The Indians driving in from the east captured Suriapet, 90 miles east of Hyderabad city.

Troops in the northwest also captured Daulatabad, also a communications centre 60 miles west of Jalna against "strong resistance."

The successes were recounted in a defence ministry communique

Grain Harvest Exceeds Hopes

OTTAWA, Sept. 14.—(CP)—Canada's 1948 wheat harvest was placed at 391,000,000 bushels today by the Dominion bureau of statistics in its second estimate of the size of this year's grain crops.

This compares with a harvest of 340,767,000 bushels in 1947 and 413,725,000 bushels in 1946. The first estimate of the 1948 harvest, made Aug. 17, placed it at 372,000,000.

PRAIRIE YIELD UP

The wheat total breaks down into 362,661,000 bushels of spring wheat, grown mainly on the prairie provinces, and 28,331,000 bushels of winter wheat, produced mostly in Ontario.

The 1948 crop of oats is placed at 361,728,000 bushels against 282,714,000 last year.

Barley production is set at 157,123,000 bushels, compared with 141,451,000 last year, while the output of rye is 26,608,000, against 13,217,000. Of the rye total 20,651,000 bushels are fall growth and 5,957,000 spring production.

The output of flaxseed (linseed) is 17,748,000 against 12,240,800 in 1947.

Civic Administration Survey Taking Shape

Information as to the cost of a three-man team to survey the civic administration, and personnel available for this work will be sought by the special committee of city council appointed to report on engagement of one or more experts.

Ald. James H. Ogilvie, in a brief verbal report to city council Monday night, told aldermen the committee had held its inaugural meeting yesterday afternoon and had decided to ask the commissioners to seek information as to cost of a three-man team to make the proposed survey, and also to ask for a report on personnel available.

Council received the information as a progress report.

COST TO BE PROBED

Members of the special committee are Aldermen Ogilvie, A. Bisset and George A. Gleave.

The committee was appointed by council following discussion of a motion by Ald. Ogilvie that one or more experts be appointed to make a survey of the entire civic administration, organization and plans for the future development of the city.

TOWN PLANNER REQUEST

The committee also was asked to make recommendations on the possibilities of obtaining a professional town planner for the city.

Request for appointment of a town planner was made by the Town Planning Commission.

The Bulletin has vigorously advocated the making of a survey of the civic administration.

Information as to the cost and personnel will be sought from municipal authorities in eastern Canada.

Police Check Runaway Boy's Story of Brutal Drubbing

City police and Children's Aid Department officials are investigating the report of the alleged beating of an Edmonton boy by his father.

Police were notified when the 11-year-old lad refused to leave the home of a playmate Monday, claiming he was afraid to go to his own home.

He said he had run away three days previously, after his father beat him with a rope and a rubber hose.

Examination of the boy's body showed extensive bruises, police were told.

Children's Aid Department officials were notified and police took the lad to the South Side detention home where he is being detained for safe keeping.

J. C. Brohman, Children's Aid Department, said an investigation into the alleged assault will be made by the department at once.

Big Four Bog Down On Italy's Ex-Empire

PARIS, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Hope is all but gone today for any Big Four agreement on the knotty question of what to do about Italy's pre-war African empire.

With a scant 24 hours left to reach a decision, delegates of the Big Four are not even agreed on whether they have the power to decide the future of Libya, Eritrea and Somaliland. Russia says they haven't.

If no agreement is reached by tomorrow, the issue automatically goes to the United Nations Assembly under the terms of the Italian peace treaty.

There was in prospect only one faint chance for any agreement. That was a report from the deputy foreign ministers' council containing an agreement in principle that Somaliland be placed under Italian trusteeship.

The delegates got together for the first time yesterday and spent more than four hours arguing about whether they actually constituted a foreign ministers' council as provided in the Potsdam agreement.

Calif. Flames Lick Resorts

OJAI, Calif., Sept. 14.—(AP)—With women and children evacuated from two communities, the picturesque Ojai valley resort area lay blackened and desolate today from a still-burning, 12,000-acre forest fire.

The community of Ojai itself, with a population of 3,500, felt the fringe of the flames, but a wind shift enabled the hundreds of fire fighters to gain control last night.

Some 10 or 11 homes, including palatial summer dwellings, were destroyed, but the fire was halted two blocks short of the business district. Initial damage estimates ran over $1,000,000. Forestry officials estimated an area of at least 12,000 acres was burned over. The area is part of Los Padres national forest.

The community of Meiners Oaks, population 1,500, also was threatened by the blaze. Women and children were evacuated from both Ojai and Meiners Oaks to Ventura.

The blaze claimed the life of one volunteer fighter, Louis Franklin Hall, 44, of Ojai. Hall was found dead in a field behind his home apparently the victim of a heart attack.

There was no report of any other serious injury.

companies no favor by linking the CLSU with the ISU."

Hall said his union would send delegates to the October convention of the TLC, who would go to the floor and demand recognition of their presence from President Percy Bengough of the TLC.

Hall hopes his group, if refused recognition, would be strong enough in numbers to demand recognition and override Bengough.

"I have no personal axe to grind," said Hall, when asked if he wanted Bengough's job. All he wanted, he continued, was a "fair trial" at the Victoria convention.

(In Ottawa, Bengough said the constitution did not define very clearly whether a suspended union might appeal for reinstatement. It would be up to the convention to decide, said the TLC president.)

Hall was questioned about possible plans to form a new trade union congress. He said he would "not hold formation of a rival congress over the heads of the TLC in order to gain reinstatement."

HAD RIGHT TO ORGANIZE

Hall said other unions have "unqualifiedly approved the fact that the Seafarers' International Union had a right to organize in Canada, as had other A F of L groups."

Hall, who walked out of a congress executive meeting in Ottawa because of "Communist infiltration in congress groups," said "regardless of TLC policy we will not be associated with Communists and will not let them use the labor movement as a stalking horse to accomplish their political objectives."

He continued that trade unionism and Communism were distinct entities. "Those who felt Communism was a militant unionism were hopelessly wrong," said Hall. "Communists make Communism first, and trade unionism second."

shortly after noon when the invasion was less than 36 hours old.

A headquarters spokesman said he did not expect the campaign to last long, despite stiffening opposition.

(A Hyderabad communique received in Karachi, Pakistan, last night said the Indian invasion had been stopped at all points.)

In the northwest, Indian forces met stiff resistance in the Aurangabad area. This column, the communique said, has been halted within six miles of Jalna. This town was erroneously reported to have been captured yesterday.

The Hyderabad army and Razakar (Moslem volunteer) forces under combined control are opposing the Indian troops at Aurangabad.

The home ministry said no communal disturbances had been reported inside India since the Hyderabad invasion began, but prime minister Jawaharlal Nehru was described by close associates as far more concerned about the communal situation than with military progress.

NO SERIOUS TROUBLE

There has been no serious outburst of trouble between Moslems and Hindus in India since last December and January, when the late Mohandas K. Gandhi embarked on a fast to enforce communal peace. Moslem-Hindu-Sikh rioting earlier last year took a terrible toll of life and property.

In Karachi, capital of Moslem Pakistan, there were calls for war against India when the news of the Huderbad invasion became known.

At Bombay, an Indian Moslem leader urged Pakistan and other Moslem states to keep hands off.

R.C.A.F. ANNOUNCES OPENING NEW RECRUITING CENTRE, KINGSWAY

R.C.A.F. authorities at North West Air Command Headquarters, Edmonton, announce the opening of a new Recruiting Centre, today, on Kingsway directly across the street from the R.C.A.F. Headquarters Building in this city.

The former Recruiting Centre located at R.C.A.F. Station, Edmonton, has been closed down and the Recruiting Officer and staff will occupy the new premises on Kingsway between the hours of eight thirty and four thirty on week days. It was stated that this move has been necessitated to accommodate more adequately the numbers of persons who are making enquiries about enlistment in the R.C.A.F. since the announcement of the opening of Aircrew and Groundcrew trades to enlistment.

All Groundcrew trades are now open to enlistment or re-enlistment by young British Subjects who are medically fit, between the ages of 17 to 30 years (if under 18 years written consent of parents is required), and possess educational attainments of one year less than Junior Matriculation. In the case of ex-service personnel age limits as outlined are extended to 30 years plus the number of years spent on active service.

Entrance into Aircrew Training necessitates somewhat higher educational standards due to the advanced training received while candidates undergo Aircrew instruction. Persons who are single, medically fit, between the ages of 18 and 24 years and possess a minimum of Senior Matriculation standing or better are eligible to apply for Aircrew Training. At the moment, however, some groundcrew trades must be temporarily limited to re-enlistments, that is former service personnel, as a waiting list for training on selected courses prevents acceptance of candidates who would require basic trade training.

Persons are able to select a Groundcrew Training and take advantage of the educational facilities provided by the R.C.A.F. to qualify for Aircrew. A complete ground training is now being provided for Clerks Administrative, Electrical Trades, Radio Trades, Photographers, Safety Equipment Workers, Vehicle Mechanics, Aero-Engine, and Airframe Mechanics—just to mention a few of the trades open to enlistment.

For complete particulars of Groundcrew or Aircrew enlistments you are under no obligation when you fill out the coupon below and mail it to: The Recruiting Officer, R.C.A.F., North West Air Command Headquarters, Kingsway, Edmonton, Alberta.

City Council Backs Fight For Air Route

Supports C of C Demand For TCA Line to Coast

Edmonton's city council Monday night lined up with the Chamber of Commerce in its fight to secure direct service on Trans-Canada Airlines from this city to Vancouver.

Council unanimously endorsed a resolution supporting the Chamber of Commerce request for this service.

R. M. Moore, representing the Chamber of Commerce, told aldermen that numerous complaints had been received from city businessmen concerning the long delays encountered on the present "shuttle service" given the city to the Pacific Coast.

PREFER TRAIN TRIP

He said businessmen preferred to make the train journey rather than travel by air to the west coast. They were sure of getting there in 24 hours by rail, but ran the hazard of being delayed from 24 to 36 hours by stop-overs at Lethbridge when travelling by Trans-Canada Airlines.

Mr. Moore stressed that Edmonton serves the bulk of Alberta's population, and for purposes of air transportation was the logical site of a main line stopping point.

The shuttle-type schedule now in operation, he said, resulted in inconveniences and time loss.

HARMFUL TO NORTH

The lack of east-west transcontinental service tends to discount the interests of the potential and rapidly-developing areas of the North West Territories, Yukon and Alaska, and the relative importance of this city to these areas, Mr. Moore contended.

He pointed out that the city's airport was capable of handling the largest aircraft in the air and had all the facilities for major and minor repairs available in no other western Canadian city.

GOOD SHOOTING AHEAD! DUCKS, GEESE PLENTIFUL

Shooting should be good this fall.

Results of a recent survey by Ducks Unlimited has revealed a marked increase in the duck and goose population of the province.

The increase is attributed to a good hatch in all sections of the province and especially in the south where drought conditions were too late to harm the water fowl.

Broods are reported to be late in the central and northern districts of the province.

Shooting season is scheduled to open September 25.

Gas, Oil Showings Reported In Tests At Imperial Dapp

A blow of gas with an oil showing is unofficially reported to have been obtained in a drill stem test at Imperial Dapp No. 1, 65 miles northwest of Edmonton. Depth of the hole at the time of the test was around 3,100 feet. The formation is believed to be lower Cretaceous. The wildcat is located on lsd 5-29-62-1 W5th.

Rumors from Imperial Redwater indicate that over 50 feet of porosity have been found in the zone that flowed oil two weeks ago. Coring and testing are being continued in search for the bottom of the oil-bearing porosity. Independent geologists say that the indications are superior to anything found at Leduc or Woodbend.

Sentence was suspended for two years when Reginald J. Chapman, Calgary, pleaded guilty in police court today to a charge of false pretences.

Suspending sentence, Magistrate A. I. Millar ordered Chapman to enter his own bond of $1,000 and said he would be kept under surveillance by Calgary police.

New Record in School Registrations Likely

New record in Edmonton school registration may have been set Monday.

R. S. Sheppard, superintendent of schools for the city public school board, announced today that first-day registration figures reveal that public school attendance is 16,104 compared with 15,061 for first day of school last year.

BIGGEST INCREASE

Biggest increase was in the number of youngsters who began school for the first time Monday.

Elementary school registration Monday was 10,182, compared with 8,993 for first day of school last year.

Intermediate school attendance increased slightly, 3,187 Monday, compared with 3,104 last year.

First-day figures for high schools show that a drop in registration has occurred, 2,735 this year and 2,964 last year.

However, registration in high schools has increased since the first day of school for teen-agers last week. Many students did not begin on time last Monday because of the poliomyelitis situation.

FIGURES UNAVAILABLE

Figures were not available today from the separate school board, but officials estimated Monday that an all-time high attendance of 3,900 would be recorded.

This would place city school attendance at a record of 20,000 pupils. Previous record was about 18,000 pupils.

Nameless One Offers Dollars for a Label

Gee, am I ever getting name-conscious! I've been literally on pins and needles since the boss told me I had to have a name and that he was going to stage a contest to secure one for me.

It never occurred to me to bother about a name before. Fact is, carrying on like I have, a name hasn't been necessary.

You see, all my life I've worked and had my fun on the sly. No one ever saw me and no one ever had to call me. I operated like my partner in crime—Topper—sort of invisible like. I'd get an idea that certain people needed help and knowing that I could help them, I'd slip in and fix things for them as best I could on the q.t.

IMAGINATION VALUABLE

Right now I'm in a dither of excitement about what name I'll get out of this $300 contest the boss is putting on to find me the most appropriate name. I know I'll have to wait the 60-day duration of the contest to find out what my byline will be but I won't mind waiting if you give me a nice catchy name that'll look good in print.

You'll find the contest rules and an entry blank in classified ad section in The Bulletin.

How about perusing this contest data and then sitting down and creating a name for nameless me. I'll appreciate it, the boss'll appreciate it and you may appreciate it, too, because of the handsome payoff.

Give me a name won't you? I'll be looking forward to hearing from you.

KEP Community Elects Officers

New slate of officers was elected at a meeting of the King Edward Park Community League held Monday night.

Voted in as executives for this winter were S. Parker, president; E. McGuire, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. R. McDermid, social chairman; Mrs. G. Fearon, education; C. Groves, local improvements; R. McPeat, sports; and G. Fearon, rink chairman.

Progress reports on the past year's activities were outlined at the meeting. Plans were reviewed for the operation of the new community skating rink and organization of a community hockey team.

"NOW, WHO CAN I NAME AS EXECUTOR?

There's Uncle Frank, of course, but.."

HOW WISE of them to reflect on the "buts" and "ifs" before they appoint any person as Executor of the estate!

"I wonder if Uncle Frank knows how to make the most of the estate? How to deal competently with Dominion and Provincial succession duties and taxes? Will he have the time to spare? What if he becomes ill? If he died, who would take over?

"Instead of leaving anything to chance, dear, I'll appoint National Trust as Executor. It's their business to administer estates. And their knowledge and experience will relieve you of a lot of needless worries."

For your family's security, name National Trust as Executor in your Will. We welcome your inquiries.

Modern Garbage Disposal

Proposed improvements to Edmonton garbage dumps are all very well as an expedient measure, but the time has surely come in this rapidly growing city when some more modern method of garbage disposal should be considered.

Residents will be glad to hear that the malodorous dump at 82nd street near the river bank will be closed and that the refuse pile on the south side of the Fort Trail is to be covered with earth.

It is good news, too, that some of the other dumps are to be enclosed with fences so that children cannot get into them.

But this is no more than emergency treatment. And sooner or later the city must face the fact that the open refuse dump is as obsolete as the open sewer and almost as dangerous to health and as objectionable to the nose.

The sanitary disposal of refuse has been a major civic problem in both Europe and North America.

In some few cities of size refuse is still dumped into old quarries or spread over low-lying land. But it has become an almost universal practice to cover such deposits with earth and to spray them with a deodorant germicide.

The open, unprotected garbage dump is rapidly disappearing from civilized communities.

The most modern and final method of refuse disposal is by incineration. These incinerators or "destructors", as they are called in England, are of many types and designs.

Since the refuse is fired at between 1,800 and 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit, there is considerable wear on the furnace body and frequent relining is usually necessary.

The clinker is usually about 25 per cent of the mass of the refuse and in England this residue has been found excellent for road foundations and other construction uses.

The cost of garbage incineration in England averages under eight shillings per long ton. In some United States plants the cost is well below this figure.

In some plants in both England and the United States, the cost of incineration is reduced by utilizing the heat for the production of steam.

It is true that incineration is the most costly form of garbage disposal. But it is also the cleanest and most effective.

Whether Edmonton can afford incineration for all city garbage is a matter for expert investigation.

The problem could very well be among those presented specifically to the firm which is ultimately chosen to conduct the projected civic survey.

Certainly this city has achieved a size and importance that place it far beyond the primitive, filthy and unhealthy method of disposal in open dumps.

The Uncertain Future of India

The sudden death of Mohammed Ali Jinnah, coming in the very hour of India's armed adventure against the princely state of Hyderabad, is likely to throw the entire question of sovereignty and governmental division among the Indian peoples into a state of acute uncertainty again.

Jinnah, almost by himself, was the creator of the Moslem dominion of Pakistan. Just 13 months ago, by an exercise of unrelenting will, he forced the splitting off of the Moslem state from the newly-created Hindu dominion of India.

Had the entire country divided itself naturally into Hindu and Moslem regions, this division might have worked out with some satisfaction. But there is no such natural geographic division and the constant pressure brought to bear by each dominion on the independent princely states has kept the matter of sovereignty inflamed and aggravated.

This present Hindu expedition to force Hyderabad into the Hindu orbit has raised the question of division into a new pitch of sensitivity and emergency.

There has always been a powerful section of public opinion in India devoted to the idea that a political separation of the two religions was unnecessary. That point of view will gain extra impetus now that pursuit of the separatist doctrine seems to be leading to civil war. It will gain further impetus through the death of Jinnah who, with Gandhi, was the most ruthless proponent of separation.

With both Gandhi and Jinnah dead and with separatism threatening to plunge the country into violence, it is reasonable to expect that a new movement towards sub-continental unity will emerge from the present situation.

The factors in the Indian situation have undergone radical change. And the status quo has taken on a new instability.

All the Family Goes to School

The most unfortunate thing that can happen to a child is to be shipped off to school by parents who believe that the teacher hereafter will assume a major share of the parental responsibility.

That attitude is unfair to the teacher and frequently disastrous to the child.

For the school can never replace the home. What the school should become is part of the home.

And the child, instead of being regarded as leaving the family for a new adventure in living, should be regarded as taking all the family to school with him.

In other words, school life should become a part of the family life. The problems of school should be discussed in the family. And each member of the family should demonstrate the same interest as the child who sits timorously for the first time in a school seat.

Socially speaking, the child should not go to school alone. For a close relationship between home and school is the finest formula for successful education.

ODDS AND ENDS

By Harold L. Weir

Judge Rebukes Laxity In Courtroom Manners

The Hon. Mr. Justice A. M. Manson of the supreme court of British Columbia got into the national news again last week when he sharply rebuked barristers who failed to bow to the bench when leaving his chambers.

It is unfortunate that this blow for judicial dignity had to be struck by this particular learned judge because Mr. Justice Manson has already demonstrated a rather pronounced touchiness in judicatory decorum.

WEIR

In short, the reproof might have been more impressive had it been uttered by some other member of the bench whose passion for courtroom propriety was slightly less tinted with severity.

Nevertheless, Mr. Justice Manson was eminently right. His reprimand was timely. Indeed, the censure was exceedingly valuable because when respect for justice vanishes in a nation there is a perceptible crumbling of the entire social structure.

In other words, when people fail to have reverence for justice they will soon fail to have reverence for anything.

More Than Mere Form

In this age of alleged liberty, fraternity and equality there is a marked tendency, especially among younger persons, to regard all form and ceremony as so much useless hocus-pocus.

Fortunately the ritual of justice in British countries has more or less escaped this zealous and juvenile "debunking." But the tendency is there and sooner or later the courts will feel the effect of this callow fury, if great care is not taken to protect the forms that house the essence.

The truth is that the demonstration of dignity in a court of law is not designed to abase the litigant or the lawyer or to titillate the ego of a judge.

It is designed to preserve the integrity of an institution without which society would fall to pieces.

Justice is the most fundamental of all our institutions, not only because it is the highest of all purely human virtues, but because it is the symbol of orderly and ordered living. It represents sovereignty. It is the voice of authority.

The absence of justice is chaos, just as the absence of democratic authority is nihilism.

And you can only preserve justice by respecting it.

Practical Purposes

But the pomp and circumstance of judicial procedure has also a very practical purpose.

The high dignity accorded the presiding officer in a court of law is definitely calculated to impress upon that officer his aloofness from the weaknesses and temptations of other men.

There is nothing in the world so difficult to be as a good judge unless it is to be a good clergyman.

The judge must divest himself of all prejudices and biases. He must strip off his personal feelings and convictions. He must become, for the moment at least, the perfect symbol of society, punishing and rewarding and dividing, not necessarily according to his own lights, but according to the standards of a code based as nearly as possible on pure justice.

The office of judge is purposely kept aloof in rare dignity and respect so that men may grow into it.

And the system works.

I have known some men of mediocre talents to be elevated to the bench. I have never known of one man in this country to disgrace it.

Idiosyncracies Of Behavior

There are still other reasons why judicial practice in Canada is clothed in a ritual which some modernists hold to be stilted and archaic.

Justice is predicated on truth And it is remarkable how truth somehow finds its way to the surface in an atmosphere of extreme dignity and formality.

Even if one should adopt the happy and unwarranted assumption that no men are liars, everyone can think of occasions when the truth has emerged in heavy disguise from those jovial "round table discussions" which are currently prescribed as the solution of all human difficulties.

The least candid of all human contacts is what is commonly described as a "man-to-man talk." And the aura of any back slapping orgy is deceit.

Most men tell the truth in court. They tell the truth there because all the paraphernalia and equipment of guile are suddenly withdrawn from them. Face to face with the awful dignity of justice, their little human pretences appear too frail to support them in the effrontery of a lie.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Don't Kid Ourselves

Editor, Bulletin—The report of the result of a Gallup Poll on the greatest force for peace (which. I suppose, means the end of bloody wars) makes me wonder if the whole wide world has gone silent on the great idea of world-wide disarmament as the sane and surest way to abolish war.

Let squabblers of all kinds enjoy their interesting disagreements and the greedy try to grab, but, without the power to arrange wholesale murder. Let intelligent kindness get peace to grow.

Don't let us kid ourselves that we don't wish for war when we don't do what would simply prevent war. Let us, with religious fervor, sweep it from existence.

Root Ginger For Arthritis

Editor, Bulletin—I have been a sufferer for some years from arthritis, and tried many so-called cures with no results. Some months ago an old lady wrote me from the Old Country and told me she had cured a friend whose hands were badly crippled by arthritis, with root ginger. Get strong root ginger, mix enough butter with it to make it adhere, and make the mixture into pills, putting into each as much ginger as would go on a 10c piece. Take three of these pills a day.

No Sex In Schools

Editor, Bulletin—Re: teaching sex education in schools, we say no. Do not teach sex at school, to a mixed class, or even to seperate classes of boys and girls. Regardless of being taught with dignity and restraint, it won't take long for vulgarity, familiarity and degeneration into promiscuity to spring up after classes.

The very fact that it is publicly taught will cause the facts of life to lose their modesty and dignity. Ethical teaching would not offset the tendency to vulgarity.

Ethical teaching should not be attempted in public schools because very few families agree on the subject and such teaching would force upon someone's child that which may be contrary to their parents' conception of God and creation. Such ethical teaching may undermine our religious freedom.

No regular teacher is responsible for sex education in schools. No two children are ready for sex education at the same age. Some require such knowledge at an earlier age than others, therefore it is not possible for the department of education to decide in what grade to include such a subject.

Private talks and teaching by the parents or guardian are the only answer. To help parents fulfill their obligation booklets dealing with teaching children sex should be available, but leave it to the parents to teach. Public teaching will make present conditions worse.

But if a part of the public desires it inaugurate only a plan which allows those who disapprove to have their children dismissed from such classes, or hold classes entirely separate from school for mother and daughter, conducted by a lady, and father and son, conducted by a gentleman, for parents and children who may be interested, but never allow compulsory teaching of sex at school, nor by the regular teacher.

She has too much responsibility now.

Italy In Colonies

Editor, Bulletin.—That Italy should be given a chance to participate in the development of her former colonies in North Africa and elsewhere, as Governor Dewey advocates, simply makes sense. Current witch-hunters will not agree, perhaps because they do not know much about the fundamental independence of the peoples of those areas.

It is true that Mussolini make highways and grandiose arches and monuments, just as it is true that he had to pay seventeen thousand lire for the sword of "honour" presented to him by the local sheiks—very much as Catherine of Russia made her tour of her empire through villages made of cardboard.

But those who matter in Italy's former colonies, and who can do most in the direction of general improvement and peace, are those who benefitted by the Italian engineers, doctors and town planners and educationists. At that time, only the Italian language linked them with European progress, and the bridge has been broken.

To those who believe that Christianity, whether adopted or merely accepted with some degree of co-operation and sympathy, can do much to repair a damaged structure, the importance of Italian participation in the new plan is obvious.

Finally, the question arises as to which country is best fitted to add its experience to aid in the well-being of these temporarily parentless territories. Italy, under her present political regime, can well meet the occasion.

May Yet Need Moslems

Editor, Bulletin — Regarding your editorial about cleaning up the Palestine mess in favor of "Israel".

The Canadians of Hebrew extraction make so valuable a contribution to our national life that I would take all steps short of force to prevent their return to Palestine in the very unlikely event that they wished to do so.

It is quite another matter to support Zionism in the creation of a national state with little, if any, possibility of harmonious relations with its neighbors. The Arabs not unnaturally fear an unlimited expansion of the boundaries of this new state and feel that their voice will never be heard among the people of the democracies. I agree with Samuels and Einstein in the lack of wisdom of the steps taken and the danger to the position of Jews elsewhere.

The Mohammedans are very numerous and widespread and they could, if we force them to it, secure consolation from what to us would be a most unfortunate source.

Let us not throw our weight around too freely. We may yet need the co-operation of the other side—and need it badly.

Wants Hobby

Editor, Bulletin—Might I be allowed a little space to ascertain if any of your many readers could assist me to solve a problem which has confronted me? I have been an active, hard-working man all my life, but, owing to an accident, I am unable to follow any gainful employment.

I wonder if any of your readers could suggest to me a hobby I could pursue to keep the hands busy and the brain from becoming stagnant owing to the want of regular exercise?

I have done a great deal of reading, but that becomes a little tiresome at times. I will be greatly indebted to those who may endeavor to assist me in the solution of this problem.

FROM TODAY'S NEWS

By Dewitt Mackenzie

The great Indian sub-continent, struggling with the dangerous vicissitudes of its new-found independence, has been visited with two further fateful developments:

1. Mahomed Ali Jinnah, governor-general of the Dominion of Pakistan, has died, thus depriving this Moslem dominion of the man who created it and was its moving spirit.

2. The Dominion of India, chiefly Hindu in complexion, has invaded the premier princely state of Hyderabad. The declared purpose of this move against the domain of the Nizam, most powerful of all the Indian rulers, is to maintain order. The Nizam is a Moslem while some four-fifths of his subjects are Hindus.

At first glance these two events might seem to have small relation to each other, and it may indeed be that their paths will not cross. Still, there are elements in them which could combine for either good or evil.

Take Jinnah: This brilliant, 71-year-old leader was law unto the some 100,000,000 Moslems of the Indian peninsula. There was a time in his younger days when he urged unity between Moslems and Hindus, but in his later years he came out for Pakistan, that is, an absolutely independent government for the Moslems. He was fiercely opposed to Mohandas Gandhi, who was the dominant figure in the Hindu world until his assassination early this year.

Now with Jinnah gone, there naturally is speculation whether this may ease the situation between the two hostile Dominions —may even result in union between the two in a federal government.

Another angle revolves about the violent and often bloody differences between the Moslems and the Hindus, growing out of religious bitterness. This has cropped up in connection with the invasion of Hyderbad. Masses of demonstrators yesterday marched to the Pakistan prime minister's residence in Karachi and demanded that Pakistan declare war on the Dominion of India because of the Hyderabad affair.

However, there obviously is no real basis for war between Pakistan and India, since Hyderabad lies wholly within India and 80 per cent of its people are Hindus.

Were Jinnah still at the helm, it's safe to say there would be no war over this issue. Still, religious strife could grow out of it and communal fighting might spread throughout the Dominions.

In the same category is the question of whether Jinnah's death may ease the relations between Pakistan and India. In any event, I venture this:

Some day—maybe soon and maybe far away — Pakistan and India will unite under a federal government, because they are interdependent economically and because it is horse sense.

Smiles

"What, fish again?" growled Peck. "We're always having fish."

"Well, John," said his wife, "it's good for you .It feeds the brain."

"Bosh! Why should you think my brain needs so much feeding?"

"Well, didn't your mother give you fish before you got married?"

"No," he hissed. "I wish she had."

"What a boy you are for asking questions," said the father. "I'd like to know what would have happened if I'd asked as many questions when I was a boy."

"Perhaps," suggested the young hopeful, "you'd have been able to answer some of mine."

Recollections Of 'The Maple Leaf'

A message from a friend in the east notes that a reunion is being arranged for those of us who, at one time or another during the recent unpleasantness, worked for the Canadian Army newspaper, "The Maple Leaf."

The note has stirred some memories of that unique experiment in journalism since I was its news editor in London, its managing editor in Delmanhorst in northern Germany and in sole charge of "pin up" pictures on both.

I like to think now that the United Kingdom edition of the troop paper, which we put out in the Evening Standard offices in Shoe Lane, just off Fleet Street, was about as close to a newspaperman's dream as any that's ever gone to press.

A small group of us had all the resources of one of London's best equipped plants, three available wire services and a string of our own correspondents. We were not bothered with the irksome demands of an advertising department or a need for circulation since we had a guaranteed audience as long as Canadians remained in uniform.

Our readers, too, were of that dream variety who digest every word avidly in their desire to get some news from home.

One Christmas, I remember, we used the whole front page for a picture of a scene in Quebec. It was a very simple picture, just a horse hauling a sleigh along a deep snow road, but it was a fine picture, too, with the steam coming from the horse's nostrils and you could almost hear the resin sound of runners on dry snow.

I know that gave a lot of hard-boiled soldiers a sweet and mournful breath of home that Christmas night. Indeed, they wrote in droves to tell us.

Beaver Visits

Our only difficulty in using the facilities of the Beaverbrook-owned Standard was that all our copy was submitted to an elderly English gentleman in wing collar and striped pants whose duty was to see that we did not get away with anything that might shock the Standard directors.

I spent a large part of my time explaining Canadian slang to this suspicious old gent or assuring him that our troops were really big boys. Once I did an interview with Phyllis Dixie, the Gypsy Rose Lee of England, and soberly recorded the fact that Miss Dixie wore an emerald in her navel. This really curled the collar of the old boy and I finally had to delete it from the interview to get his blood pressure back to normal.

Lord Beaverbrook, himself, paid us only one visit. We were warned well in advance. Whenever His Lordship was making a tour of the plant the grapevine spread the news and all the Standard workers would wash their faces and run madly hither and thither. As for us, our only problem was to hide our eccentric cartoonist, Tom Luzny, now one of England's top muralists.

"The Beaver" strolled into our office, surrounded by his nervous "yes-men", and spoke a few words of encouragement to us. Then Luzny sauntered out of his work-room wearing, as usual, his unpressed battle dress, two rows of German medals he'd picked up somewhere, a Swiss mountaineering cap with a tall feather in it and carrying a vicious foil (his hobby was fencing).

All of the yes-men gasped in unison, but the face of "The Beaver"—which always reminded me of the pan of a terribly alert simian—spread into a remarkable grin. I was never much of a Beaverbrook-lover, but after that he went up several notches in my estimation.

Journalism In Germany

Life on the Delmanhorst edition of the paper was not nearly as pleasant. The printing staff, linotype operators, head-setters and make-up men, were stolid Germans. The plant itself had been the headquarters of a Strength-Through-Joy newspaper.

All of us, the soft-hearted conquerers, tried at first to ingratiate ourselves with the gloomy Teutons in the hope that they would produce a better looking paper. The result was unexpected. The Germans immediately began making demands for hot lunches, shorter working hours and higher pay.

It was then that we discovered that a Hitler-type roar produced more than a pleasant smile. The tougher we got the more respect we got. It was a discouraging lesson that made the whole of the occupation an unpleasant business.

Still, life must have been pretty tiresome for those Germans. They were setting type in a foreign language and sometimes we kept them late at night while we waited for the Army Signals to relay the world-shaking news of who had won a Toronto Maple Leafs-Montreal Canadiens hockey game.

When they complained of this over-time we had our interpreter explain that the game was an important part of the Canadian Strength Through Joy program. This seemed to satisfy them.

The people of Scandinavia will have an unprecedented opportunity of appraising the progress made by Britain's postwar industries when the all-British Exhibition opens in Copenhagen this month. It will be the largest and most comprehensive display of United Kingdom goods ever held in Copenhagen or indeed, in Scandinavia. The products of close to 1,000 firms from different sections of Britain's industry will be on view. These will include machinery, chemicals, building materials, household goods, office equipment, foodstuffs, sea and air transport, transport equipment, leather and fancy goods, scientific instruments, textiles and fashions. The television display will be another major attraction as will Copenhagen's first display of United Kingdom radar. The Exhibition, which will be opened by H.M. King Frederik on September 18, will be held until October 3.

Hail to thee, blithe Spirit!
Bird thou never wert,
That from heaven, or near it,
Pourest thy full heart
In profuse strains of unpremeditated art.
Teach me half the gladness
That thy brain must know,
Such harmonious madness
From my lips would flow,
The world would listen then, as
I am listening now!

OIL

Okalta No. 4 Logging High

By Cecil Jackman

Possibility of further south extensions at Leduc is seen as a result of the high logging at Okalta No. 4. The hole is being drilled as a south offset of Okalta No. 2 producer at the extreme south end of the field. Unofficial reports indicate that the logging is considerably higher than in No. 2 which showed commercial prospects in D2 zone and is taking production from D3 zone.

D2 zone tests at Okalta No. 4 have given a recovery of 1,200 feet of crude oil and a gas blow estimated at 400,000 cubic feet from the interval 5,214 to 5,230 feet Drilling is being continued down to the D3 zone.

Test at Central Co-op No. 5C is set for today. Various causes have delayed drilling of the plug originally scheduled for last weekend. The equipment has been rounded up and the plug will be drilled this morning. It is rumored that the hole will be deepened five feet to 4,180 feet for the initial test. Geologist Dr. J. O. G. Sanderson is in charge of completion of the indicated Cretaceous success.

Casing is being pulled at Leduc Consolidated No. 2 in preparation for the directional redrilling of the hole which will be underway shortly.

CASING SCARCE

Shortage of casing and other steel products is becoming increasingly evident in the field. Imperial Leduc No. 90, Leduc field's newest producer is reported to have hed a mixed string of five inch and five and one half inch casing run to avoid delay in completion. The small size casing has not affected the potential of the well which averaged 104 barrels of oil an hour during an eight nour test Sunday evening.

Several new locations in the Leduc and Woodbend areas are due for tests in the near future. Calmar and Leduc Calmar have location prepared for a rig on the Imperial farm-out quarter in section 1 of the Woodbend township.

NEW LOCATIONS

The Young Drilling Company rig will move in as soon as Imperial Leduc No. 92 is completed. Shaw interests are reported to be preparing to drill on the quarter purchased from the Crown at the Woodbend section.

McConset No. 1 on Imperial farm-out land west of the main field is waiting for another rig after having set surface pipe. The Leduc Calmar extension test, three miles southeast of Okalta No. 4, is preparing site.

Ex-Minister Joins Royal

MONTREAL, Sept. 14. — Appointment of the Rt. Hon. J. L. Ilsley, PC, KC, as a director of the Royal Bank of Canada is announced today. Finance minister for the Dominion throughout the war years, Mr. Ilsley will bring to the councils of the Royal Bank of Canada one of the keenest financial and legal minds in the country. It was on Mr. Ilsley's shoulders that the onerous duty of organizing Canada's wartime financial structure fell in July, 1940 when he became minister of finance in Canada's wartime cabinet.

Mr. Ilsley was first elected to the Canadian House of Commons in the general election of 1926 as member for Hants-Kings county. He was re-elected in the general election of 1930 and again in 1935, on the latter occasion as a member for the newly-created district of Digby-Annapolis-Kings. He was sworn of the Privy Council and appointed minister of national revenue in the third government of the Rt. Hon. W. L. M. King in 1935.

Since his retirement from the political scene, Mr. Ilsley has been senior partner in the Montreal law firm of Ilsley, Duquet a firm of Ilsley, Kearney, Duquet and MacKay, a position formerly held by his friend and close political colleague, the late J. L. Ralston.

All Stock Groups Display Strength

Base Metals Post Best Gains; Western Oils Quiet But Strong

TORONTO, Sept. 14.—(CP)—All groups strengthened as trading jumped ahead on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Industrials, under pressure of a heavy ex-dividend list, still managed to edge ahead on fractional gains. Golds moved in narrow range and base metals showed the widest gains. Western oils were quiet and strong. Volume was about 933,000 shares.

Papers led the advance in the industrials as action increased. Gains ranged up to 1½ with utilities also showing a stronger tone. Bell Telephone, Fanny Farmer and Donnacona Paper were among the ex-dividend stocks that weakened Canadian Breweries and Distillers Seagram were ahead in the liquor group.

Gains outnumbered losses 5 to 1 in a strongly active base metals list. Consolidated Smelters, Denison, Hudson Bay, Noranda and Quemont rose fractionally while Pend Oreille, Sherritt, Gulf Lead and base metals were ahead from 2 to 10 cents.

Wright-Hargreaves, La Luz and Hollinger advanced in the senior golds. Penny Juniors moved in narrow range with advances edging out declines.

Anglo-Canadian, Atlantic Oil, East Leduc, Leduc West and Okalta gained in western oils Pacific Petroleum touched a new high at $1.49 at one point in the day but weakened late in the session.

NEW YORK Sept. 14.—(AP)—Rising stocks held their gains today in a firm market.

Rails went forward early in the session with steels running second.

As some selected industrial issues gave ground rails took up the slack to keep the market as a whole close to the best averages of the day.

BOND MARKET

MONTREAL, Sept. 14. — (CP) — Dominions short-term issues tended to ease slightly in dull trading on the bond market here today.

Provincials and municipals were quiet, save for the new issues of Quebec and New Brunswick provinces.

FARM MACHINERY SALES INCREASE

SASKATOON, Sept. 14.—(CP)—Farm machinery sales in Canada were about 50 per cent higher this year than in 1947, Stuart S Lee of Brantford, Ont., general manager of Cockshutt Plow Company limited, said Monday in an interview.

This was probably the largest production year for the industry since the war, Mr. Lee said. Prospects for 1949 were unpredictable due to material shortages, especially in steel, pig and scrap iron.

Stocks Of Meat Higher This Year

OTTAWA, Sept. 14.—(CP)—Although embargoes on some meat shipments to the United States were lifted last month, stocks held by Canadian packers, abattoirs, wholesale butchers and cold storage warehouses at Sept 1. were higher than on the corresponding date a year ago.

The stocks amounted to 75,381,000 pounds, compared with 89,201,000 at Aug. 1 and 62,224,000 pounds at Sept. 1, 1947, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported Moonday.

Most of the meat stocks showed an increase over stocks at Sept. 1, 1947. Pork advanced from 34,941,000 to 42,720,000 pounds, beef from 19,303,000 to 22,722,000, veal from 3,685,000 to 7,263,000, and mutton and lamb from 2,296,000 to 2,676,000.

Freight Tonnage Sets New Record

OTTAWA, Sept. 14. — (CP) — Freight hauled by Canadian railways in the first five months of 1948 set a peacetime record for that time of year.

The railways moved 60,550,000 tons of revenue freight in that period, the Bureau of Statistics reported Monday, to top the 1947 high for the first five months by 1,255,000 tons.

Nickel Dividend

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Directors of International Nickel Company of Canada Monday declared a regular dividend of $1.75 on preferred shares, payable in United States funds Nov. 1 to shareholders of record Oct. 4.

Barley Futures Lead Coarse Grain Advance

WINNIPEG, Sept. 14.—(CP)—Barley futures today led an upturn in coarse grains with good buying attributed to shippers, exporters and eastern distributors. Offerings were light.

Oats also received support from shippers and American houses but hedging sales were in larger volume than in barley.

Elevator selling came out in flax with occasional buying by processors and U.S. houses.

Rye moved narrowly with trade confined mostly to commission houses.

In today's export business, 650,000 bushels of Canadian wheat were allocated to the United Kingdom under the long-term agreement. Class two wheat prices were up one cent from Monday.

Three Flyer Aces En Route To Montreal Training Camp

DOUG ANDERSON
. . . Off to Montreal.

BUD MacPHERSON
. . . Eyes Canadien future.

Doug Anderson, Bud MacPherson and Stephen (Bing) Merluk, all valued members of last season's Allan-Cup winning Flyer machine, have departed for the Ste. Hyacinthe, Que., training camp of the Montreal Canadiens.

Their departure leaves a big gap in the ranks of the champions although there's a feeling that at least two, and possibly all three, will be back to line up with Flyers in the rapidly-approaching Western Canada League campaign.

It's understood that all are angling for National League contracts or it's no dice. They play in Montreal or it's back to Edmonton.

As will be remembered, Anderson,, off a particularly brilliant debut in senior ranks, won the WCHL rookie-of-the-year award. He teamed with Merluk and "Handy Andy" Clovechok to form one of the most powerful lines outside the professional ranks.

★ ★ ★

Merluk, an out-and-out cutie around the goal, and Clovechok, also no part of a weak sister in payoff territory, provided much of the Flyer power in the march down the Allan Cup trail.

MacPherson, a young 200-pound giant, also came along well in his first season away from junior ranks. After being tried and found wanting as a left winger, the big fellow blossomed as a rearguard and was rated right up alongside Gordon Watt, Doug Lane and Harvey (Pug) Young, his more experienced defence mates, as the season closed out.

★ ★ ★

Earlier it was reported that Clovechok also would train with Canadiens. His name is carried on the negotiation list of Dallas Texans of the United States league. The Texans are an affiliate of Montreal. However it's now believed that the winger with the Heinz tendencies in the goal mouth (he knows 57 different ways of getting a puck into the net) will forego the jaunt to St. Hyacinthe.

In the meantime Frank Currie, coach of the Flyers, is busy with last-minute preparations to start the training season at the Arena. The Canadian champions take to the ice at the week-end to prepare for the opening game of the WCHL on Oct. 13. Keith Woodall, the new net-minder who played last season with Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen of the Ontario Hockey Association, arrived in the city Monday.

There's much action on all fronts as the other teams in the fast western circuit also prepare to hit the freeze. Less than a month remains until opening day and there's a powerful lot of getting ready to go through.

Charles Gets Nod Over Jim Bivins

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Ezzard Charles, who hopes to step into Joe Louis' job as heavyweight champion, took a long stride in that direction Monday night by winning a well-fought 10-round decision over Jimmy Bivins.

But there would have been booes no matter which way it went, for, although there was a lot of fancy boxing and some hard hitting, neither of the Ohio Negro boys managed to score a knockdown.

The Associated Press score card gave six rounds to Charles, two to Bivins and two even, but in none of these rounds was there any great margin of victory.

Appropriately, the best was saved for the last The 10th round was a dilly. Charles, named by Louis as a possible successor to the title he is vacating, came out aiming for a knockout.

He cut loose with everything he had, which is plenty. But Bivins, hammered by potential haymakers from both the left and the right, managed to sneak in close for some damaging blows of his own.

Charles weighed 176, Bivins 178½.

The fight drew 11,631 spectators. Gross receipts were $48,560 for a net of $37,162.

Letter to Editor

Edmonton,
Sept. 13 1948

Sports Editor,
The Bulletin:

I have just finished reading with interest your column in today's Bulletin dealing with the question of the option system.

Must say I heartily agree with you that the practice of individuals being in control of blocks of seats is all wrong.

However, I also feel that your viewpoint toward what I call a legitimate option holder is too severe. For instance, in my own case, I have supported hockey in Edmonton almost since the day the Arena doors were opened. At the present time, I have two options. Generally my boy and myself occupy the seats. When we are unable to attend we see to it that they are made available to others at just what they cost us in the first place.

Under the circumstances I do not see where we belong to any "favored group."

Yours truly,
Longtime Hockey Fan.

In ancient Greece, health was considered one of the highest goods, and disease a great evil that made man inferior.

IS HIS A GLASS JAW?

Bruce Woodcock Subject Of Ring Guessing Game

LONDON, Sept. 14.—(AP)—His broken jaw mended, Bruce Woodcock returns to the ring against Lee Oma Sept. 21 the subject of the greatest guessing game in British boxing history.

Can the British heavyweight boxing champion come back? Is his jaw sound or is it glass? Is he keen to fight after the jaw-breaking beating he took from Joe Baski 17 months ago? Was Woodcock ever any good in the first place?

It is a favorite pub and parlor topic, here. The real answer will be provided only by Woodcock, the modest and thrifty county boy boxer from Yorkshire, once the shining knight of the kingdom who was going to succeed Joe Louis as the world heavyweight champion.

Bruce still has all the admirable homely qualities at 27, plus his British and European heavyweight titles. But he will have to start from scratch rebuilding himself into a positioin as a challenger for the logical United States contender for the world title.

His first task on that long trail is the handsome Detroit playboy, Oma, whom he meets over eight rounds at London's Harringay arena.

Tom Hurst, 44-year-old north country manager of Woodcock, is "quietly confident" that Bruce can make a successful comeback.

Bruce is no longer a hungry fighter. It is conservatively estimated that he has made £30,000 ($120,000) since he turned professional in 1942. Unlike most boxers, Bruce still has practically all of his earnings.

He went to the top fast as a pro. Nineteen straight victories earned him a chance to fight huge Jack London for the British heavyweight crown in 1945. An underdog, Bruce knocked out Jack in the sixth round.

Since then his best victory was knocking out Gus Lesnevich, then world light-heavyweight champion, in the eighth round.

New York Giants Jolt Pirates' Flag Hopes

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(CP)—New York Giants dealt the National League pennant hopes of the second-place Pittsburgh Pirates a jolt Monday night as Lefty Monte Kennedy hurled the Giants to a 5-2 triumph. The loss dropped the Pirates 3½ games behind the idle pace-setting Boston Braves.

Brooklyn Dodgers snapped their three-game losing streak by beating Chicago Cubs 6-4 in another National League night game. Dodgers came from behind to win, scoring four runs in the seventh inning.

In Monday's only American League game, the sixth-place St. Louis Browns beat Cleveland Indians 3-2. The defeat ended a Cleveland winning string of seven games and cost the Indians a chance to gain on the idle Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees.

GREAT COMEBACK

The Dodgers entered the seventh trailing 3-2. Gene Hermanski singled to centre, Rex Barney bunted and when Andy Pafko's throw to second was late, both runners were safe. Marv Rackley sacrificed and Schmitz threw low to first to fill the bases.

Then Jackie Robinson singled in one run, and when Pee Wee Reese flied to Ed Waitkus, Barney scored and so did Rackley on the bad throw past the catcher. Another run came over on a fly by Pete Reiser.

The Giants, by winning, moved into a fourth-place tie with the idle St. Louis Cardinals. Both teams are less than a percentage point behind third-place Brooklyn.

The Giants jumped on little Vic Lombardi for three runs in the first inning. An error by Stan Rojek, Whitey Lockman's single, a double by Sid Gordon, and Willard Marshall's one-bagger produced the Giant runs.

GORDON'S 26TH HOMER

Second baseman Joe Gordon hammered his 26th homer into the left field bleachers for the Tribe in the fourth inning.

The contest was a playoff of the nightcap of Sunday's double-header which was halted by darkness in the 12th inning with the score 3-3.

Victory Gift Captures 'Peg Invitation Run

WINNIPEG, Sept. 14.—(CP)—A. G. (Scotty) Kennedy's brilliant filly, Victory Gift, Monday captured the $8,000 Invitation Canadian three-year-old championship race at Polo Park.

Foaled on V-E Day while her owner was convalescing in an English hospital, Victory Gift, winner of the recent $5,000 Canadian Derby, led all the way over the 1¼ mile route to finish 2½ lengths ahead of Antoninus, owned by E. Albertson of Dalroy, Alta. Sweepblu from the Carr Hatch stables of Toronto finished third, while the Whittier Park stock farm's Lord Fairmond wound up last in the four-horse field.

CHOUKALOS HITTING THE BALL AT COAST

Ernie Choukalos, massive catcher of Purity 99's of the Big Four baseball league, is making quite a name for himself these days with Vancouver Capilanos of the Western International loop.

Latest word from the west coast city told of the chunky backstop smacking a homer, scoring the winning run and hitting three for six in his second game. In his first game, he smacked the first pitch for a clean single.

The Western International wheel closes Sept. 15, so Choukalos might still see action with Les Lear's Calgary Stampeders of the Western Canada football conference. It was reported earlier that he would line up with Stamps.

PHILLIES SIGN TIGER CATCHER

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—(BUP)—Philadelphia Phillies Monday purchased catcher Hal Wagner from the Detroit Tigers for the $10,000 waiver price and recalled five players from Toronto, their Internation League farm club.

Lade Alexander, Phils' public relations director, said Wagner would report immediately. The 33-year-old veteran catcher broke into the major leagues with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1937 and later played with the Boston Red Sox.

Cleveland Hurler In Critical Shape

CLEVELAND, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Don Black, Cleveland Indians pitcher of no-hit fame, is in critical condition after suffering a hemorrhage apparently resulting from a neck twist in Monday's game with St. Louis.

Physicians said the hemorrhage is near the brain. They said it resulted when an aneurysm, an unnatural growth between a vein and an artery, broke

Black apparently twisted his neck when he hit a foul in the second inning and fell at the plate in pain. He was helped from the field and later lost consciousness. He was still unconscious last night.

Later Dr. Castle said the player had an excellent chance to recover. He reported the condition could not be corrected by surgery and said Black's chances of survival depended on whether a mass hemorrhage developed.

"If no more hemorrhages develop, he might regain consciousness enough to recognize his friends by Tuesday," Dr. Castle said. "Then again, he may stay in his present condition for quite awhile. At any rate, he is through with baseball for the season."

Whether he will ever play baseball again is debatable, the physician reported.

The Chinese annual population growth is estimated as high as high as 5,000,000 a year.

Moher ON SPORT

By STAN MOHER, Editor

Flyer 'Futures', etc.

A quick gander into our favorite crystal ball and what it shows as upcoming for followers of the Flyers and the Western Canada loop in general this season:

Oct. 13—Flyers bounced in opener by Calgary Stampeders as new goalie Keith Woodall 'fans' on a couple of long ones. "He'll never replace Al Rollins. They shudda made sure of that Pickell," is the chant in the 'gods' at the north end. Saskatoon Quakers dump Regina Caps 6-1. Regina press takes dim view of creaky performances of oldsters 'Sweeney' Schriner and Mel Hill.

Oct. 30—Flyers drop third game in four starts, the visiting Regina Caps taking the verdict by 3-2 in overtime. Following the reverse it is announced that referee Reg (Pep) Moon will handle no more Flyer contests. "We never get an even break in Regina," one member of the Flyer hockey committee is quoted as saying. "Why should Caps get an even break in Edmonton?" Saskatoon pacing the league, two points in front of Calgary Stampeders.

Nov. 20—Flyers hit the league basement following three straight losses on the road. Indignation meetings are held. "Why doesn't the Exhibition Association spend some money and get a hockey team?" the fans scream. Reg. Bentley, Saskatoon forward who is leading the league in scoring, puts the finger on the Flyer troubles. "They don't know how to relax, how to have fun between games. They're all tightened up."

Dec. 10.—Flyers starting to roll. Woodall going like a house afire in nets. Fans asking: "Remember that fellow Rollins—Al was his name, wasn't it? Whatever become of him?" Veterans Gordon Watt, Morey Rimstad, Elmer Kreller and more really flying. In Calgary, Stampeders' coach Jack Arbour makes longest speech of career. "Watch the Flyers," he warns.

Dec. 23.—Exhibition Association announces that steel for purposes of enlarging the Arena will be secured shortly, probably in the first quarter of the new year. Close to 3,000 line up at Mike's in hopes of buying a ticket for game against Calgary. "Sorry. No tickets. All options picked up for this one," it's announced when wicket finally opens.

Currie Predicts

Jan. 10.—"We'll be in second place in two weeks," coach Frank Currie predicts of awakened Flyers. Saskatoon Quakers starting to slip, drop 19-4 reverse to Flyers before 6,500 at the Arena. Score is 5-0 after three minutes of play. Regina press announces that 'Sweeney' Schriner is finally rounding into shape.

Jan. 15.—It's rumored that referee Reg (Pep) Moon will be restored to good standing again. "We never wanted him out of there in the first place," Flyer officials maintain. "It was Calgary that refused to go along with him." Down Lethbridge way coach Pete Slobodian, already under fire from the staunchly-junior local press, hints darkly that he may return to the pro ranks if the Fourth Estaters don't let up on his last place Leafs.

Jan. 25.—Saskatoon drops to third place, behind Regina and Edmonton, the Flyers having made good on coach Currie's prediction about taking over in the second slot. Calgary's floundering Stampeders deny that Lorne Carr and 'Sad Sam' Timmins will be coaxed out of retirement to aid the cause. "There are too many old men in the league already," Timmins is reported as saying. "Besides I'm saving myself for the baseball season."

Feb. 9—Referee Stan Fuller gets the gate at Regina as Caps lose important game to Flyers by 3-2 in overtime. "We never get an even break in Edmonton," a Regina official is quoted as saying. "Why should the Flyers get an even break in our rink?" D. P. McDonald makes annual "Of course I'm ready to stand behind my officials. But what can I do about it?" speech. Bernie Bathgate, playing first season with Flyers, takes over scoring leadership.

Feb. 16—Caps and Flyers running neck and neck at top of heap. Stampeders a distant third as Bob Brownridge comes off shelf to rejoin former linemates Ken (Boo) Hunter and Dunc Grant. Quakers fourth, just three points ahead of Lethbridge. Rumors persist that Harvey (Pug) Young, Flyer defenceman, is playing his last season.

Says Reg Bentley

Feb. 22—Stories out of Saskatoon deny reports of friction in the Quaker ranks. "There's no truth in the story that Mike Shabaga has been indefinitely suspended for failure to back check," they make plain. Reg Bentley, barely holding to his place in the 'Big Ten', announces that Quakers aren't taking things seriously enough. "Yuh gotta play it close to the vest like them Flyers do," he points out.

March 5—Regina, Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge, Saskatoon . . . is the order of finish in the Western Canada circuit. Teams prepare for first round of playoffs, Regina vs Lethbridge, Edmonton vs Calgary . . . Saskatoon coach Bobby Kirk announces he will scout Memorial cup playdowns in search of "young players" for the 1949-50 season . . . Officials of the Quakers announce that team will "break even," despite having finished in the basement.

March 25—Flyers win league championship, bowling over Regina Caps in a torrid seven game series. Goals at crucial moments by Schriner and Mel (Sudden Death) Hill give Caps early lead in finale but Flyers rally in great style. Team prepares to head out on trail in defence of Allan cup.

April 1—Officials of the Edmonton Exhibition Association announce that steel for purposes of enlarging the Arena will be secured shortly, probably in the second quarter of 1949 . . . Dr W. G. Hardy, of the CAHA, releases scale of prices for Allan cup playoffs and there is much grumbling on the part of the fans. "We'll boycott the games," they holler. Packed Arena watches as Flyers win western crown with decisive win over Spokane Spartans who somehow qualify for Allan cup doings. Keith Woodall overshadows rival netminder Ron Pickell all through series.

Stamps Whitewash Winnipeg Bombers

Winnipeg 0, Calgary 18

CALGARY, Sept. 14. — (CP) — Les Lear's Calgary Stampeders, striking through the air and on the ground with equal power, rolled up their second shutout against the once-mighty Winnipeg Blue Bombers 18-0 before 7,000 spectators Monday night to establish themselves even more firmly as rulers of the 1948 Western Canada conference.

Three touchdowns—one from Keith Spaith to Woody Strode forward passes, one from a Paul Rowe powerhouse drive, and the third from a last-minute bit of nimble-footed ball toting by Cec Kliewer—made up major portion of the Stampeder score as they sent Bombers back to Winnipeg under their second white-washing.

The victory left Stamps unbeaten in five starts and boosted their scoring total to 84 points with only 14 marked against them by Bombers and Regina Roughriders.

Opening cautiously in a strongly defensive and scoreless opening frame, Stamps started to roll in the second sessioin and made it a touchdown after the first crossover.

Time and again they forced Bombers to roll back under continuous forward passing attacks while only rarely allowing the Jack West coached club to pull off aerial plays successfully. In the later stages, coach Lear experimented continuously with his younger players but still held Bombers powerless.

Stamps completed 10 forwards out of 18 attempts for total gains of 120 yards—probably the most consistent aerial gains ever seen in Calgary. Winnipeg completed three out of 15 passes to earn 65 yards.

Both teams also showed smoother ball handling, only two fumbles being charged to each—both of them recovered with little loss of ground.

A 'DUTCHMAN' SAYS his first 'hellos' to Flyer hockey fans. It's Keith Woodall, expected to make folks hereabouts forget all about Al Rollins. Last season with Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen in the OHA, Woodall arrived in the city Monday. —Photo by Ross.

New Flyer Goalie Arrives In City

He crashed the senior ranks the season before last with Owen Sound of the Ontario Hockey Association. Last season he transferred to Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen, also of the OHA. Among his teammates on the Dutchmen were former major leaguers 'Flash' Hollett, Bobby Bauer and 'Dutch' Hiller.

The puckstopper expected to fill the big skates of Al Rollins in the Flyer goal this coming season—22-year-old Keith Woodall—arrived in the city from his eastern home Monday.

Almost his first words were: "It's a great feeling to be hooking on with the Flyers. Sure hope we can win that Allan cup again this season."

Woodall is known as something of a "money-player."

He spent several hours Monday touring points of interest in the city escorted by Frank Currie, Flyer coach. "I sure like what I've seen of Edmonton," the young fellow enthused.

Woodall also plays baseball and just this summer found out about golf's allure. "Right now the game has me beat," he laughed. "But I have hopes." He also swims.

Unmarried the newcomer would not even admit that he was carrying a very strong torch for a girl back east. This is his first visit to Edmonton. He never was west of Regina previously.

He seemed keen to get at the business of helping the Flyers defend the Allan cup. "I know I'm going to be in a good league," he suggested. Then he added, "and with a fine team."

Born in Elmira, Ont., Woodall is a well set-up athlete. He goes six feet in height and weighs in at 170 pounds. Already the professionals have been on his trail. A year ago he trained with Providence Reds of the American league after rejecting a bid from at least one National Hockey League team.

"Actually I'm not very interested in professional hockey at the moment," Woodall admitted.

South Side Legion Cops North Title

RED DEER, Sept. 14.—Edmonton South Side Legion swept a week-end doubleheader against the Red Deer Legion in the mid-way city to capture the Northern Alberta Canadian Legion fastball finals. Scores were 10-7 and 10-9. The South Sides opponents in the provincial finals are not known.

Edmonton was in control of the first game all the way after taking a 3-1 third-inning lead but needed two runs in the bottom of the last stanza to take the second contest.

Ted Gosche of Edmonton rapped out a homer in the second game while Blakely connected for three triples.

'Big Fours' Drub 'Battlefords 10-1

Doug Darrah Whiffs Eleven; Local Baseball Season Ends?

By Jim McCurdy

N. Battleford 1, Edmonton 10

Ralph Morgan's 'Big Fours', seven Eskimos and two Cubs, successfully wound up the 1948 baseball season (everybody says) at Renfrew Monday night when they trounced the North Battleford Beavers 10-1 in an exhibition contest.

The victory, before about 500 fans shivering in 40-degree weather, gave Edmonton a 2-1 edge in the best-of-three series. The locals took the first game of a Sunday doubleheader 2-0 and lost the second 7-5.

Doug Darrah struck out 11 of the Beavers and didn't allow a walk as he held the visitors nearly completely in check. An unearned second inning run was the only counter scored against the right hander.

STARTED SLOWLY

The Edmontonians started out mildly with single runs in each of the first two innings and then drove starter George Taylor from the mound with a four-run blast in the third stanza. Veteran Ross Arnold took over and retired the side without further damage.

The fun started with Cliff Johnston's single to left and Dave Brockie was safe on an error by left-handed shortstop Lloyd Ryan. Ken Samis singled to centre for one tally and then Laurel Harney was walked to fully dot the bases. Darrah smashed a single to right for runs two and three. He also was indirectly responsible for the fourth run. Taylor tried to trap him off first but dribbled the ball past first-sacker Elton Dean, allowing Harney to score.

After his auspicious start, Arnold held Morgan's crew scoreless for two innings. Three hits, a walk and an error gave Edmonton two sixth inning tallies while two hits and a double steal netted two more in the seventh.

Diamond Dust: Bill Price, second sacker for the Big Four and Inter-City league all-star selectioin has a couple of university supps to write and then will take a week's holiday before starting his chemical engineering course again. Already he is thinking of winter sports at the U.

* * *

Reg Bentley, of the Delisle hockey family and catcher for the Beavers, inked his Saskatoon Quaker contract Saturday and turns out for training on the 27th with the Western Canada league entry.

Mothballs were in use as park lessees, the Johns, Ducey and Beatty stored away uniforms and equipment. Strangely missing, though, was one stocking. Trainer Cecil (Tiger) Goldstick couldn't figure out what anyone would want with one stocking.

Christiansen To Sponsor Junior Leafs

It could be that Jim Christiansen, prominent local businessman-sportsman, is acquiring a hockey chain. Last season he was the power behind the Waterloo Mercurys, one of the west's top intermediate squads. Now he has branched out—into the junior field.

Monday, officials of the Maple Leaf Athletic club announced that enthusiast Christiansen had agreed to sponsor their team this coming season in the Junior Hockey League.

"We are pleased to make this announcement," said Earl Samis, president of the Maple Leaf organization. He went on to explain that a number of others—including at least one National league team—were anxious to sponsor their junior entry. However Mr. Christiansen and the Leafs finally worked out a satisfactory agreement.

During the 1948-49 season Leafs will be known as Waterloo Maple Leafs.

EAC Gridders Play Maple Leafs

Maple Leafs and EAC's each will be out to better the 5-5 draw they played a week ago when they tangle at Clarke Stadium at 8 p.m. Wednesday under the lights.

Few line-up changes from the first game are expected for the contest, second all-city game of the season.

Dates of the inter-provincial playoff with British Columbia were announced Monday night by Jack Reilly of the Recreation Commission. Alberta will travel to B.C. on Oct. 30 with a second game being played at the Alberta winner's grounds Nov. 6.

Volley Ball Loop Organized Here

Geoff W. Mortimer was elected president of the newly-formed seven-team city volley ball league Monday night while F. F. Lambrecht was named vice-president. R. G. Dilke is secretary of the loop.

Any other teams interested have until Sept. 30 to join the league. Play will begin Oct. 2. YMCA and Texaco Exploration, each with two entries, RCMP, RCAF and city police are the seven teams entered thus far.

Stewart To Coach Kelowna Pucksters

CALGARY, Sept. 14.—(CP)—Kenny Stewart, rearguard for Calgary Stampeders Hockey club during the 1947-48 season, has accepted a position as manager and hockey coach in Kelowna, B.C., and will leave Wednesday or Thursday to take over his new duties.

Stewart will act as playing coach and said Monday that he figures on settling down in the B.C. town permanently.

IF LOUIS OFFICIALLY QUITS

Elimination for Joe's Crown Okayed by NBA

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The National Boxing Assocaton has a plan for selecting the successor to Joe Louis—if and when the heavyweight champion retires.

Abe J. Greene, president of the N.B.A. told a reporter Monday his group was prepared to recognize the winner of an elimination tournament—between Jersey Joe Walcott, Gus Lesnevich, Jimmy Bivins and Ezzard Charles—as the new heavyweight king if the Brown Bomber officially calls it quits.

But, Greene emphasized, "We will not force Louis to resign.

"We will do nothing that might reflect unfavorably on Louis, great champion that he is."

Greene, in an interview after the opening session of the NBA's 29th annual convention here, said Louis still had until December to make up his mind and that the NBA was "certain" the champion would act by that time. The tip-off may come Tuesday night.

As NBA officers made their official reports it was apparent that some 150 boxing delegates from 44 states, two United States territories and two foreign countries were merely marking time for Louis' arrival.

The champion is scheduled to attend the NBA dinner meeting here Tuesday night He may make known whether he plans to keep the retirement pledge made to his mother immediately following the Walcott fight.

While Louis has insisted he'll quit the ring as undefeated heavyweight champion of the world, there have been repeated rumors the Brown Bomber might make one more defence of the title he has held longer than any other fighter.

LONG ARM OF LAW GRABS BIG CHARLIE

MOOSE JAW, Sept. 14.—(CP)—Charlie Conacher, coach of the Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League, probably will never forget his first visit to Moose Jaw.

Shortly after arrival here Sunday night to attend the Chicago amateur hockey school, the former Toronto Maple Leaf star was walking down the street when a city policeman, on the lookout for an alleged worthless cheque passer, stopped Conacher and asked his name.

When Conacher refused to disclose it the policeman threatened to take Big Charlie to the police station and lock him up for the night.

But friends came to the rescue and succeeded in convincing the policeman that he had the wrong man.

Strictly Personal

By JIM ALGEO

With Edmonton hockey players on the move, indications are that our town again will be represented in just about every league on the continent this winter.

Latest contingent to shove off for other fields includes five youthful stars who stuck out like sore thumbs in the junior picture last season.

Bob Manson

Two of them—Bob Manson and Kay Strate—took in proceedings at New York Rangers' school at Winnipeg last week. . . . Three others, Ken Watson, Denny Smith and Len Haley, are striving to become links in the Toronto Maple Leaf chain. . . And the last of the Mohicans is Don Haley, Len's older brother, who is a Chicago Black Hawk chattel.

The Haley Bros., tabbed by many as the Bentleys of tomorrow, Watson and Strate, all starred in the city junior wheel last winter. . . . Manson, who had a bang-up season with Lethbridge Native Sons, Memorial Cup finalists, drew plenty of attention at the Ranger workouts, so much so that he was offered a pro contract.

However, apprehensive of losing his amateur status, Bob chose to play out the next season with New York Rovers of the Quebec Senior loop, Rangers' lone shamateur club. . . . He may turn pro, though, if given an extra good deal by the New Yorkers.

* * *

Coach Frank Boucher and other Ranger big-wigs were high in their praise of shifty Strate. . . . The husky winger has been shipped to Lethbridge Sons, New York farm club, for more experience. . . . Boucher also showed great interest in five Native Sons of last winter—Slim Lavell, Bill Ramsden, Lou Holmes, Jack Evans and Fred Brown. . . . All were offered pro contracts.

Their loss would prove a stiff blow to Lethbridge, still striving for a Memorial Cup winner.

* * *

As for Len Haley, he will likely chase pucks for Toronto St. Michael's juniors . . . It is not known just where Watson will fit into the Toronto Leaf picture this season, but ten will get you twenty the smooth-passing centre will make the big top before many winters lapse. . . . He led all city junior point-getters last year.

Smith, who toiled for Wetaskiwin Canadians, and Don Haley might make a return to Edmonton . . . Both are still of junior age.

* * *

Of course, before these pro prospects can catch the rattler for points east, they must secure releases from their various clubs.

* * *

Other local or near-local players with a yen for bigger and better things include Dave Butler, top goal-getter in the city junior league [illegible] winter, Buddy Noon, South Side junior netminder, Bob Watt, [illegible] and Leo Lucchini. All will take in the Cleveland Baron camp. . . . Watt played at Ponoka last season, while Lucchini, ex-Edmonton Canadian, and Bierd showed with Cadomin. . . . Cleveland camp opens in Brandon on Thursday.

* * *

Add to this list Bobby Carse, Johnny Black and Bob Solinger to Barons; Doug Anderson, Bud MacPherson and Bing Merluk to Montreal, to name a few, and Edmonton is well represented in hockey warfare throughout the continent.

Bouchard, Mosdell Ink '48 Contracts

MONTREAL, Sept. 14.—(CP)—General manager Frank Selke of Montreal Canadiens announced Monday night defenceman Butch Bouchard and centre Kenny Mosdell have signed their contracts for the 1948-49 season.

Bouchard, one of the outstanding defencemen of the league, will be starting his eighth season with the club. Mosdell played in only 23 games last season. He was out at the start with a broken arm, suffered in a softball game, and later broke the same arm playing hockey.

Inside Hollywood

By Ralph Dighton
(For Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD.— (AP)—Bob Hope hits the air waves tomorrow night with a ne wshow, new cast, new product and a new time.

"It's a whole new deal," says Hope. "Practically a new deck—everything's new but the joker.

"I may even find I'm talking to a new audience. For the first time in 10 years, the program's been stepped up one hour—to Y.P.M. here on the coast. That's 9 p.m. in the east and means we may catch a lot of those people who used to snore through my show without bothering to turn the radio on. It used to be 10 o'clock in the east when my show went on the air, and lots of people back there go to bed at 9:30 come Hope or high water."

Tomorrow night there'll be no Jerry Colonna, no Vera Vague, not even the opening monologue which long has been Hope's trademark. Instead there will be the new movie discovery, Doris Day, who was a top-flight radio songstress even before Hope had to stop making cracks about Crosby's girth. And Les Brown's orchestra—with heavy emphasis on a new sweet string section. And a new baritone, Bill Farrell.

SENTIMENTAL LOSS

"There'll be a sentimental loss with Jerry and Vera gone," Hope said. "But we think the public wants a whole new show and we're doing our best to give it to them." Last year Hope's Hooper rating took a dip for the first time in seven years.

"This year the show's so new it may even stink," he says. "But if worse comes to worst, we still have Hope."

So thorough-going is the changeover that Hope has let eight writers go—men who had been with him a long time.

SIX NEW BOYS

"I've got six new boys now, with a lot of fresh ideas. The whole framework is different. We're depending more on situation comedy, than just straight gags."

Six writers, incidentally, is a new low for Hope.

"With only six writers," he said "I'm practically ad-libbing."

Driver 'Blameless'

CALGARY, Sept. 14.—(CP)—A coroner's jury, inquiring Monday into the death last week of Wm. Cargill, 69, of Calgary, under the wheels of a trailer truck, returned a verdict stating that Cargill "apparently threw himself" in the path of the truck. "No blame can be attached to John Rice, the driver," the verdict said.

Gen. Clay Foresees Berlin Settlement

Says Russia Will Not Make City Final Issue

By Richard Kasischke

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay said today: "I don't think war is just around the corner."

The United States military governor added that he doesn't think the Russians "will make Berlin the final issue on the entire German problem." He predicted that before any forceful actions are attempted to break the 82-day-old Soviet blockade, the United States will exhaust "all other means at its disposal" to reach agreement.

Clay left the impression, however, that the United States at least would not be prepared to discuss any other larger German issues with the Russians at a Foreign Ministers' conference before the Berlin blockade is lifted.

COMMUNISM LOST

Louis Glaser, veteran United States military government official, declared that Russia and Communism have already lost the political battle for Berlin.

"The Russians and Communism have proved themselves morally, ethically and ideologically bankrupt in Berlin.

"The proof of this lies in recent events. They now have descended to rioting and resorted to force against democratic procedures to seize control which they could never gain otherwise."

Glaser said the battle for Berlin is not yet over, but he asserted:

ISSUE PLAIN

"Now the issue is plain and the lines are drawn for all the world to see. The Russians are going to have to talk turkey on the highest levels in Washington, London and Moscow."

In Moscow, informed observers looked for a climax sometime this week on the four-power talks over the Berlin crisis. Whether the talks end in success or failure appeared to hinge on what takes place at the next meeting of the east-west diplomats at the Kremlin, perhaps tomorrow.

Diplomatic circles in London predicted the western envoys in the Soviet capital would seek another interview with either Prime Minister Stalin or Foreign Minister Molotov within the next few days.

Three Drowned At Prince Rupert

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., Sept 14.—(CP)—The silt-brown waters of the Skeena river took two lives and a 25-year-old gill-netter fell off the waterfront here and drowned during the week-end, it was learned Monday. Eleven-year-old Allan Russel and Allan Benson, 11, fell from their boat while attending fish nets, and John R. Stewart was victim of the waterfront tragedy.

Dock Strikers Rap Army Plan

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—(AP)—CIO longshore headquarters announced today that union stevedores will ignore a call by the United States army for dock workers to handle military cargoes in contract-struck ports on the United States Pacific coast.

The army called for qualified dock workers on a "first-come first-hired" basis for 8 a.m. today in San Francisco and said similar calls were being made in other west coast ports. Loading cargoes for the army's Pacific areas will begin Wednesday, the announcement said.

"There will be a picket line around the army employment office this morning," Longshore headquarters said.

In a bitter statement the union denounced the army's plan to bypass the union-controlled hiring hall as "an open-shop move."

"It means direct strike-breaking by the army," a spokesman for Harry Bridges, union president, said.

Canadians Flown From War Zone

LONDON, Sept. 14.—(CP)—The ministry of commonwealth relations announced last night the names of those evacuated from Hyderabad to Madras by air last week.

Canadians were:

Reinaltedd Friebel, Miss Helen Whittman, Miss Vinetta Vaer, Miss Emma Lepp, Miss Helen Harder, Miss Elizabeth Friebel, D. C. Crosby and Mrs. Marguerite Crosby.

MOVIE FANS PAY RECORD TICKET FEES

OTTAWA, Sept. 14.—(CP)—Movie-goers shoved a record amount of money into Canadian box-offices last year, even though actual attendance dropped off from 1946.

The movie take reached the all-time high of $32,279,000—not counting amusement taxes—compared with $59,889,000 in 1946, the bureau of statistics reported Monday.

The record revenue came from 220,715,000 patrons, a drop from the 227,539,000 who bought tickets in 1946.

In addition to the theatres' take, the Dominion government last year skimmed off $16,375,000 in amusement taxes, compared with $15,055,000 in 1946.

Discrimination Is Seen In Rail Rates

HALIFAX, Sept. 14. — (CP) — John Diefenbaker, Progressive Conservative member of parliament for Lake Centre, said Canada's freight rates structure must be rebuilt to remove industrial discrimination against various provinces.

Opening a Maritime tour with an address before the Halifax Kiwanis Club, he said geographical barriers "which deny to Canadians everywhere equality of opportunity" must be eliminated.

Mr. Diefenbaker commended trade unions that had undertaken to "clear their ranks of Communists," who, he said, were "on the march in Canada."

During his address, the 55-year-old lawyer made no reference to reports he would seek the vacant Progressive Conservative party leadership. Earlier, he had said he would make a statement on the matter within a week.

LUTTON, Northamptonshire, England, Sept. 14.—(CP)—From his house adjoining the ancient church of St. Peter, Rector L. S. Clark was startled to hear the church organ playing "Tiger Rag."

Three youths, holding a "swing session" in the empty church, were told to leave.

"To avoid further desecration of church property, I have given orders for the church to be locked between services," said Mr. Clark.

Cross-Section of Crowd-Pleasers at Annual Fall Show of Edmonton Kennel Club

STYLE SETTER at Monday's show was this tartan-clad wire hair Fox Terrier. Bright-eyed nine-month-old Penny's Bewitcher pleased owner Maxine Clayton when he received Best of Winners award and first for junior puppies in his class.

BEST OF BREED was title won by this big, black Newfoundland, Neptune Second. Only nine months old, this senior dog won out over kennel-mate Millcreek Domino. Both dogs are owned by J. J. Patterson. They are only Newfoundlands in show.

ALCAN CHIEF ENVOY is this native-son Bulldog's title. Ferocious look is for people who compare him to John Bull or a certain war-time British premier. Just 11 months old, in short career has won four high awards. Agent and owner is Mrs. Marie M. Glover. Toothy English Bull is in competition with 11 others.

DOGGY DEJECTION isn't justified here, because pictured black and white Springer Spaniel, Vic's Wynnesel Bobs, had just won Winner's Dog award at Monday's dog show, Thirty-month-old sad sack is owned by Claude and Vivian Foster.

DIGNIFIED AND DETERMINED despite his frivolous name, Seafield Sandy Pants is this red English Cocker. Dignity probably stems from British ancestry, and determination from urge to win in today's show. Owner is Barbara Fitzgerald.

Wire Hair Terrier Takes Best In Show Honors Here

Top dog among 167 entries at the Edmonton Kennel Club's annual dog show Monday was Champion Caress of Shawhaven, a four-year-old Wire Hair Fox Terrier who was judged to be best in show.

No newcomer to championship heights, Caress has won 11 Best in Show awards since she started her career—eight of those in the last 10 shows and five in the last nine days.

IS QUEBEC-OWNED

The veteran show dog is owned by William Scarpa of the Malabar Kennels, Point Fortune, Quebec, and handled by Mac Bell, Hamilton, Ontario, president of the Handlers' Association of Canada. After two October shows in Quebec, she will be retired, according to Mr. Bell.

Reserve Best in Show was the sole Beagle entry, American Champion Altopa Atom, owned by O. J. annett, Massillion, Ohio. Handler was again Mac Bell.

Since being shown in Canada, Altopa Atom has in seven shows been best in group seven times, reserve best in show twice and best in show once.

When the stubby little Beagle has his Canadian championship confirmed by the Canadian Kennel Club, he will be tri-international champion, Mr. Bell said. He has previously won the United States and Field championships.

OTHER AWARDS

Further awards made by Judge Walter Pym of Regina were:

Best in Toy group: International champion, Sensation of Dara, Pomeranian, Mrs. A. C. Walkington.

HE CAN'T BE MAYOR, TO RUN FOR COUNCIL

Fred J. Speed, perennial unsuccessful candidate for mayor, announced Monday he would be a candidate for alderman at the November municipal election.

He made this announcement at city council meeting, and intimated the chief plank in his platform would be the relationship of the CNR with the city of Edmonton.

In his last municipal election contest Mr. Speed advocated that the city endeavor to obtain the Macdonald hotel from the railway company for use as a city hall.

He intimated also he would have something to say about "the tinkering with the educational system."

New church building was designed by Kelly Stanley of the firm of Stanley and Stanley, architects.

Ken Oliver is chairman of the building committee and Jack Stewart heads the new church finance committee.

Rev. J. Gordon Troyer is pastor of the church, and it is expected work on the new structure will get underway this fall.

TRUCKS GET AREAS ON MARKET SQUARE

Special areas for truck parking on the market square were designated by city council Monday.

The areas will be marked off and signs erected, and penalties will be provided in the parking bylaw for violation of the parking areas by motorists other than drivers of trucks.

The parking areas will be on the east and west side of the square, and will be reserved for trucks on all days except Saturdays and Sundays.

During Saturday a special parking area will be provided adjacent to the market building to permit loading and unloading.

Sex, Crime Book Ban Asked by City Council

Distribution ban against publications dealing with crime, sex and many other forms of law-breaking periodicals is sought by city council.

Aldermen unanimously supported a resolution passed at the recent meeting of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities which sought the prohibition of these publications.

The Federation's resolution asserted that such publications have a tendency to induce crime among citizens, more particularly in the case of juveniles.

It pointed out also that the method of distribution of the objectionable publications was such that dealers must accept them along with the better-class literature.

The resolution requested that representations be made to the proper authorities at Ottawa drawing attention to these matters and requesing that all appropriate preventative measures be initiated at an early date.

New Industrial Area Planned in West End

City council Monday night took action to make a large tract of land in the northwest section of the city available for industrial purposes.

Aldermen approved the resubdivision of the area bounded on the west by 121 street and 119 street on the east, Kingsway on the north and 111 avenue on the south.

This will make available for industrial purposes a considerable area of land immediately abutting the main line of the CNR.

At present the area is zoned as one family dwelling district.

Council will request the Town Planning Commission to rezone the area to heavy industry district.

THEY WANT LIGHTS, TOO

Paving Delay Protested By Crescent Residents

Residents on St. George's Crescent are up in arms at the city's delay in paving the crescent.

They are complaining also about the delay in installing adequate lighting on that thoroughfare and are insisting that something be done about both projects.

In a communication to city council over the signature of Hales H. Ross it is pointed out that city council authorized paving of the crescent in 1945. It was expected the job would be completed that year.

Enquiry in 1946 about delay in work elicited the reply "no cement," and in 1947 the excuse was "no labor."

The road has been in shameful condition all summer. The gravel surface is about worn out, and only once this summer has a maintainer been over the road, Mr. Ross complains.

Mr. Ross asserts there is plenty of cement available, and it only remains for council to make up its collective mind to do something about projects promised three years ago.

Mayor Harry Ainlay took issue with Mr. Ross' statement there was abundant cement available.

"If cement is available," said the Mayor, "we would like to know where it can be procurred."

Commenting on the complaint regarding lighting on the crescent Mayor Ainlay intimated this situation would be rectified in the course of the next few months.

Ald. H. E. Tanner was critical of complete lack of maintenance work carried out on roads this summer.

Commissioner D. B. Menzies said this resulted from lack of grading equipment. Equipment available, he added, had been utilized chiefly on new construction work.

Mayor Ainlay said the commissioners were "just as conscious as any other citizen that gravel roads have been neglected this year."

The communication was referred to the commissioners for reply.

Truckers Protest Tender For Snow Removal Here

City council Monday delayed action on approving tender from the Adby Construction Co., covering snow removal throughout the city during the 1948-49 winter season.

This action was taken following representation by Jack Taylor, secretary of the Alberta Motor Transport Association, that city truckers would decline to haul snow at the 6.3 cents a cubic yard mile quoted in the company's tender.

ASKS FAIR RATE

He said the rate would permit truckers to earn only $1.89 cents an hour operating a three-ton truck. This rate, he said, was too low and suggested a fair rate would be nine cents a cubic yard mile which would give truckers a return of $2.70 an hour.

Mr. Taylor said the minimum rate paid by the provincial government was $3.25 an hour.

Commissioner D. B. Menzies told aldermen the company was prepared to enter into the contract despite the warning from Mr. Taylor that truckers would decline to haul snow.

WOULD PROVIDE BOND

The company also would provide a bond of $10,000 for performance of its contract in each section of the city.

Aldermen ordered the matter laid on the table pending a further report from the commissioners on rates paid by the city to truckers engaged directly by the city in gravel and snow hauling.

City's Flood Donation Tops

The City of Edmonton's donation to the British Columbia Flood Victims Relief Fund was the largest contribution made by public subscription.

This was disclosed at city council Monday night by A. A. Campbell, city comptroller.

He said that subscriptions from some other cities were larger, but they were made direct from civic funds, and not from public subscription.

More than $25,000 will have been forwarded to the B.C. fund when the Edmonton fund is finalized.

Mayor Harry Ainlay said that credit for the success of the Edmonton fund was due to the farming communities surrounding the city.

Council received a communication from Austin C. Taylor, chairman of the B.C. fund, extending sincere thanks to the people of Edmonton and district for their generous contributions.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Chinese Eat Hairy Cukes, Octopi, et al

By Penny Wise

VANCOUVER, B.C—Remember last week I told you-all that I would tell you-all about some of the goodies that you-all would find in a Chinese store here, if you-all were here and went into a Chinese store? Well, here goes, and by the time you read about all those intriguing foods, you'll (a) hire yourself a Chinese cook, or (b) come to this city, which, by the way is particularly beautiful at the moment, with sun shining everywhere every day, maples turning red, and late holiday-takers being the envy of the populace.

• • •

After leaving our bathing suits in mothballs all summer, we've now got them into action at last. Only trouble is that the Park Board, feeling that we weren't going to have any summer at all, towed the diving boards from all the beaches away to their winter hide-out. So we're left with nothing to swim to, nothing to jump off, nothing to practice our stomach-stingers from. Ho hum.

• • •

Now, about that Chinese store. It's right in the heart of our fascinating China town, and is about as modern as any serve-yourself store you'll find anywhere. Most of the clerks speak English as well as Chinese, and while the majority of customers are Chinese, still a lot of discerning Occidentals find their way down there and tote off home laden with hairy cucumbers, water lily root, dried baby octopi bamboo shoots, and chickens feet.

• • •

Yes ma'am, those are some of the things they sell there, and once you get the know-how you'll find them as palatable as roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, if not infinitely more so.

The Chinese are renowned for their good eating habits, and while most of us would turn our noses up at the very thought of dehydrated eel, you'll find that if you put that fish in with a pot of rice to boil, you'll sit down and gobble up more than your share and wish for more. I betcha!

• • •

Those hairy cucumbers, now; they cost 30 cents a pound, and are big enough for a giant policeman to use for a billy. You cook them, in soup or stew, and there are also some sour cukes (all wrinkled and puny) which you treat in much the same manner with equally good results.

• • •

Something else you should have floating around in your soup are soya bean cakes (a nickel each), fried soya cakes, (two for a nickel) and maybe the occasional chicken's foot, a part of the bird that is neglected by most of us.

In this store you may also buy tins of whole lichee nuts done up in sweet syrup. I think they are one of the most delicious canned fruits you can eat, and even at $1-something a tin you won't feel the financial pain in the delight of the devour.

• • •

The same may be said of bamboo shoots in tins (a 5-pound can costs $5 but goes a long way), and of course there are black beans that have a flavor all their own (50 cents a pound.)

You'd serve the dried octopi in little bits in soup or chop suey, and you'd buy dried oysters (85 cents for a wire ring full) then soak them and use in a dozen different ways.

• • •

They have genuine soya bean sauce from China there, at about 20 cents a bottle more than the local (which is 80 cents), also oyster sauce ($1.50 a small bottle); chestnuts at 80 cents a pound; dried mushrooms at (ouch) $10 a pound, but they weigh so light they go a long, long way.

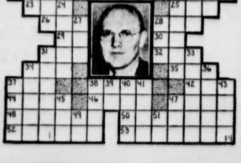
Answer to Previous Puzzle



Women with lovely skin such as that of Actress Peggy Wood naturally are concerned about keeping it lovely through aging years, thus prompting the keen interest in hormone creams.

WHY GROW OLD

Benefits May Result From Hormone Creams

By Josephine Lowman

In this column I am attempting to answer a number of letters which have come to me. These letters ask about hormone creams. Some simply request information about them while others berate me for even mentioning them.

I feel a great responsibility toward my readers in such matters because I believe that many of them rely on what I say, since they have discovered through years of reading "Why Grow Old?" that I have never had any commercial tieups.

I only report that which I feel will be helpful to my readers. Actually, I, myself, have been the guinea pig for most of the products I describe after investigating them.

This is true in the case of hormone creams. For a long while I hesitated mentioning them at all. There was some controversy about them in the American Medical Association then. This has since been clarified, although there is no doubt still some variance of opinion.

I have talked with doctors and skin specialists, in whom I have confidence, and not one of them has felt that there could be any bad effect from using these creams. The worst that has been said was, "I do not think they can do any harm, but I doubt that they can do any good."

Naturally, women who read so much about hormone creams, wish to know about them. They want to know if they are dangerous and if they really do any good for the aging skin. I can only say that this will have to be an individual decision.

I, myself, have used one regularly each night for some time now and have noticed a definite lessening of the little lines which were forming. I cannot believe that The American Medical Association would allow their sale if they felt that they are dangerous.

Does this answer your questions?

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Grooming, Manners Assets to Charm

DEAR MISS DIX: How can a woman cultivate an attractive personality?

A GIRL.

ANSWER: To acquire a pleasing personality that will make her persona grata wherever she goes, a woman must begin by making herself as easy on the eyes as possible. She need not be a beauty, but she must always be good-looking, which is to say, well-dressed and well-groomed.

Clothes are the homely woman's salvation, for, like the mantle of charity, they cover a multitude of sins in the way of physical blemishes and defects.

If a woman has a pretty frock and a becoming hat, nobody notices the color of her hair or her complexion.

Next, the woman who wishes to develop a pleasing personality must acquire a friendly manner. She must wear the smile that won't come off.

She must show interest in other people and she must learn to listen sympathetically while they tell her about their babies, aches and pains and surgical operations.

She musn't be afraid to show people that she likes them and enjoys them. We all are instinctively drawn to those who show that they admire us.

PLEASANT REMARKS

The woman who wishes to be popular must be amiable and good-natured and given to saying only pleasant things to people. Nobody likes a woman who is sour-faced and malicious and prone to make sarcastic speeches.

The woman who is sweet and friendly and cordial is always popular, and any woman can be that.

BRIDGE

Takes 3 Overtricks With Careful Play

By William E. McKenney

A northwestern team consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Dayboch, Don Horwitz and Dr. A. G. Engel tied for first place recently in the national amateur team-of-four championship. Mr. Dayboch is president of the St. Paul Pioneer Press and Dispatch Grand Slam Club of St. Paul, Minn. He and his wife are a very good combination.

Mr. Horwitz is a University of Minnesota student, and Dr. Engel, of Little Falls, Minn., is vice president of the Minnesota Bridge Association. This victory places all four in the national masters class.

The amateur team-of-four is a board-a-match championship, therefore every possible trick must be won. Mr. Horwitz made six-odd in no trump on the hand shown today. West had the choice of opening a spade or a club, and elected to lead the jack of clubs.

The low club was played from dummy. East won with the king and returned the deuce of clubs, dummy's ace winning. The jack of diamonds was led, East covered with the queen and Horwitz won with the ace.

He cashed the king of diamonds, then made a very interesting play. He returned the deuce of hearts. He did not want to take his only other entry out of dummy to take the heart finesse. West played low and dummy's ten-spot won the trick. Horwitz now led a small heart, went right up with the ace, then ran the balance of his diamonds.

At trick eleven, he laid down the queen of clubs, still having in his hand the jack of hearts and nine of spades. You can see the situation that West was in. He was holding the king-queen of spades, and the king of hearts, and must discard one. If he let go the king of hearts, declarer's jack would become good. If he let go the queen of spades, the last two tricks would be won in dummy with the ace and jack of spades.

The three no trump contract was never in danger, but the heart play gave the northwestern team the match.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Let Child Decide About Chewy Foods

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Babies outgrow their interest in smooth, pureed foods and need to be provided with food of different textures which inspire chewing.

The longer a child stays on sieved foods the more stubborn he may become about using his new teeth.

It's wise to let the child take the lead in this. If there is a reluctance to eat the sieved, mashed food, then try some of the coarser foods.

The same tactics may be adopted when the child is tired of sieved vegetables or pre-cooked cereals. Carrots cut into cubes or slivers, small pieces of meat in the hand, a section of skinned orange, may be accepted with curiosity and appreciation when the same food served in the usual way will go begging.

When the baby is two years of age he can eat with some exceptions, most of the foods the rest of the family get.

He can partake of meats—except ham and sausage, vegetables, fruits, puddings, breadstuffs and cereals, just as the family gets them.

Food will be cut into small pieces for easier chewing, or for holding in the hand when the spoon defies the child's manipulation.

Highly seasoned foods, or rich, oily foods are taboo in the child's diet. The first are unnecessarily stimulating, and spoil the child's appetite for simple, bland foods. The rich, fatty foods, tax the child's digestion.

Mothers get into inflexible habits and forget that the baby is growing and may need some changes in the type and character of the foods served him.

Our leaflet No. 26, "Diet From One to Two Years," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

CALVERT 1622 Famous Families YOUNG 1799

In 1818 John Young, Scottish immigrant, wrote "Letters of Agricola" to the press which were instrumental in stimulating agriculture in Nova Scotia. His two sons, Sir William and George Renny, lawyers and statesmen, were both members of the Executive Council and Speakers of the Assembly. George founded the newspaper "Nova Scotian" while Sir William became Premier of the Province and later Chief Justice, a position he held for 21 years. A notable record of a truly distinguished Canadian family.

Great Families Create Great Nations

Distinguished English Statesman and Secretary of State to King James I, Calvert, head of the famous Calvert family, founded pioneer colonies in Newfoundland and Maryland early in the 17th Century.

Calvert and his descendants encouraged their settlers to clear and cultivate their land. The Calvert family also introduced principles of freedom and tolerance, hitherto unknown in the New World. These Calvert ideals were perpetuated down through the succeeding generations of the Calvert family.

The family is the corner-stone upon which great nations are built. Let each of us promote within the great Canadian family, the same concepts of freedom and tolerance pioneered by the Calvert family over three hundred years ago.

The Calvert family promote land clearing and agriculture among their settlers.

Deaths Mount To 13

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The death toll in last week's explosion at the E. J. Brach Candy Company rose to 13 Monday with the death of Sam Spina, 32, of Chicago.

DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

Increased Costs Hold Up School

LLOYDMINSTER, Sept. 14.—Members of High School Board attended a special meeting of the town council to discuss the situation which has arisen in connection with the erection of the proposed new school in this prosperous border oil town. Rising costs of construction and limited amount of money at present available have resulted in complications.

Early this year the school board earned a grant of $48,000 for the erection of a vocational training unit in the new school by securing a donation of $12,000 towards the project from the town council.

At that time from information gathered from various quarters it was ascertained that the cost of a school such as was required for this ever-growing town would be $140,000. The school board, accordingly, through the town council, secured authorization to raise $80,000 by debentures.

Now it appears the cost of construction has given that original cost quite a boost, and even with cutting down the size of the building to some extent the cost is still greater than the amount of money on hand.

It was pointed out, however, that a suitable unit that would meet immediate requirements could be erected for about $160,000, this being a seven-room structure in place of the original plan of 10 rooms.

After considerable discussion the following resolution was passed by the council giving the council the green light to go ahead:

"That in consideration and full discussion of the report of the High School Board and with full realization of the necessity of raising by way of debenture issue further funds with the approval of the Department of Municipal Affairs, this council endorses the proposal of the board to proceed with the construction up to the cost of $140,000 and such further amounts as may be received in the way of additional government grants."

It was suggested to the board that they make the necessary excavations and lay the foundations. The board signified a desire to get that much done this fall, and if possible, to make a start on the actual building if the weather is suitable.

Hanna Firms Improve Premises

HANNA, Sept. 14. — Warwick's Ladies' Wear which has been undergoing alterations for the past few weeks re-opened Saturday morning. The establishment has been completely modernized after enlarging it.

The old cafe formerly known as the Corner Cafe has been enlarged and made over. Its former manager, Charlie Hong, has taken a partner, Joe Quong of Acme and Turner Valley.

Berwyn Group Holds Meeting

BERWYN, Sept. 14. — Monthly meeting of the United Church Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Brown, on Wednesday. President, Mrs. J. Madsen in the chair.

YIELD OF WHEAT DISAPPOINTING

BELLIS, Sept. 14.—Farmers throughout this district are very disappointed with the yield of wheat. H. G. Shapka, who farms southeast of Bellis, claims that his crop is the worst in 26 years, yielding four to 10 bushels to the acre.

Many other farmers expect to have about that same result. This low yield was caused by the very dry season and early frosts, lowered the grade. Threshing of wheat is almost completed in this area.

Volunteer Labor Not Too Popular

RED DEER, Sept. 14.—The executive of the Red Deer Curling Club did not have a very encouraging response when they called a working bee at the rink to get ready for the coming season. Only six members out of a total membership of around 160 showed up to do their bit.

However, the faithful half dozen put in a good afternoon's work, moved some dirt on the sheets and cut tree roots which had grown under the south wall of the building. It was impossible to do all the work which was planned, removing dirt from all the sheets, spreading cinders and making the ground ready for ice-making.

The job will have to be done anyway if the season is going to open in better time than usual. Now that volunteer labor has failed the club will have to hire men to do it.

The club's semi-annual business meeting will be held on Sept. 17 and a number of important matters will come up for discussion.

Man Dies in Car En Route to Coast

HIGH PRAIRIE, Sept. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Heber Keay, Sr., and family and Mr. Keay's brother, John Keay, left High Prairie by car this week, intending to spend the winter at the Coast.

Just after leaving Ponoka, the brother, "Jack" Keay, aged 64, who was a visitor here from the east, died suddenly, presumably of a heart ailment. The party returned to Ponoka for aid. The body was returned to High Prairie on Thursday and the funeral held in High Prairie Friday afternoon.

Winnipeg Doctor Now at Daysland

DAYSLAND, Sept. 14.—Dr. McPhail arrived here from Winnipeg to take over the practice left vacant by Dr. J. Day, who left for Edmonton to take post graduate work.

Dr. and Mrs. McPhail and baby will live in the Jas. Brown house.

WALL BOARD PLANT PLANNED FOR FORT

FORT SASKATCHEWAN, Sept. 14.—A $50,000 wall board manufacturing plant is expected to be established in Fort Saskatchewan in the near future.

If negotiations are favorably completed, the plant will be built on the river flats, below the town proper, and adjacent to an old railroad spur. The riverside location is essential as the plant will use about one million gallons of water daily.

A main component of the wall board is wheat straw, to be obtained from farmers in the surrounding district.

Backers of the proposed industry anticipate the use of natural gas, to be installed here early next year.

The plant is expected to employ about 26 men.

Killam Groups Plan Carnival

KILLAM, Sept. 14.—At a recent meeting of the executives of the Killam Board of Trade, the Killam branch of the Canadian Legion and the Killam Curling club, it was decided to hold a monster carnival in the curling rink on Oct. 20 and 21.

Besides a wide variety of interesting games it is planned to have an interesting program each night and to give away prizes to the holders of the lucky tickets. Proceeds will go to the advancement of the Killam memorial centre.

Annual Tourney Has 31 Entries

STONY PLAIN, Sept. 14.—With a total of 31 entries the golf tournament run off at Stony Plain on Labor Day was one of the most successful events of the season. A number of visitors were also present from outside points.

Local 'Bobby-Locke' in the Stony Plain event this year was Edwin Litke who shot the 5-hole final in 25. Runners up in this final flight were Archie Wudel with 27 and Albert Stocklo with 28.

Mrs. Miller was winner of the ladies, with Mrs. Jones declared winner of the consolation

Don Ducholke was winner in the students competition.

Millet Institute Plans Activities

MILLET, Sept. 14.—The new Millet Women's Institute Branch held their second meeting since organization, on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Pohl, with Mrs. Frank Burrows being the hostess. Two new members were enrolled, bringing the total membership to seventeen.

Mrs. Burrows read a most interesting paper on health and public welfare. It was decided that potholders would be made and sold at the next meeting to augment their funds, following the business meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Next meeting will be served at the home of Mrs. Pohl and Mrs. Hugh Ross will read a paper on Agriculture.

Killam Wedding

KILLAM, Sept. 14.—Jessie May MacKenzie, daughter of Mrs. George Nattress and the late John MacKenzie of Strome and Melvin Aaaroh Fossen, son of Mrs. Hjelmer Fossen of Killam, were married at Camrose United church Sept. 8. Rev. E. B. Brundage of Daysland officiated.

Freak Mishap Injures Man

An Edmonton man was slightly injured in a freak accident Monday when he was struck by a bench falling about 30 feet from a department store roof top.

Struck across the shoulders and back of the neck by the flying bench was Stuart Edgar, 12229 95 street He was taken to the Royal Alexandra hospital and detained overnight for treatment.

HURTLES TO STREET

The accident occurred at 100A street and 102 avenue.

Edgar is believed to have been walking along 102 avenue when a gust of wind blew the garden bench from a sun-deck on a two storey annex of the C. Woodward building, and sent it hurtling to the street.

Witnesses William J. Humen, 36 Cattistock block, and Mrs. William Boivcott, 10406 79 street, who narrowly missed being struck, described the bench as "sailing through the air" from the roof-top. It was fitted with a lath and canvas canopy.

KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS

Edgar was knocked unconscious by the impact. A Woodward's truck took him to hospital.

Police were told that benches were stored on the sun deck while alterations to the rooftop of the remainder of the building were being completed.

Kiwanis Told Of Life in U.K.

Professor Andrew Stewart, recently returned from a visit to the United Kingdom, related some of his impressions to members of the Kiwanis Club at their meeting in the Macdonald hotel Monday.

Characterizing the country as a "dear and devoted friend," Professor Stewart said it had been struck with adversity, but at the same time faced the opportunity for a fuller and richer life.

It is an old friend that one would want to go back to visit many times, he said.

Brig. J. C. Jefferson appealed to the club for support of the Edmonton Safety Council in its drive for membership and campaign for the reduction of accidents.

Tribute was paid member Stan McCuaig on his election to the presidency of the Canadian Bar Association.

Two new members, Maxwell Peacock and Elvin Christenson were introduced by Lew White. President Walter Sprague presided.
